NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | The Importance Of The Draining Of The Swamps

NFK Update: The importance of draining the swamp

NFK Update: The Black Book of Codes pt 2

Today the “Swamps of Corruption” have spread far and wide, resembling a virulent metastatic cancer throughout the globe. Consequently, this makes it all the more crucial that not only must President Trump clean the Swamp. It is also imperative that President Putin and President Xi Jinping promptly clean their Swamps. Other world leaders must immediately do the same or face accountability for their nefarious relationships with the Cabal.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | The Asian Insider Returns

February 25, 2018

"I would like to take the opportunity to proffer my eager observations with respect to the preceding two-plus years regarding the ongoing contributions that have been received here in the Eastern hemisphere at the behest of Neil Keenan and the Keenan Group.

I understand Mr. Keenan has befallen ongoing health challenges (mostly due to repeated attacks on his person), but in spite of this, the endeavors of this extraordinary man and his prodigious team bring support to Asia that is truly inspiring.

[It should be noted that Mr. Keenan's ongoing health issues are due to the repeated attacks upon him. It is clear now that he has survived, for the most part, due to the miraculous benefits of the machine that he calls the Healing Computer; which is demonstrably adept in diagnosing and facilitating the effective treatment of a vast array of ailments, as I see many around the world are increasingly reporting].

For some time, this outstanding group brought us daily anticipation and excitement. Many of those that were following developments kept their electronic devices and social media pages at close quarters for updates as to what the Keenan Group was about to undertake next. To be sure, Neil Keenan was then and remains now a folk hero to many of us here.

At times he has been a one-man riot squad, taking care of whatever threats potentially undermine or threaten Asia. His commitment to the people of Asia has never ceased and continues in an unwavering manner to this day. It would be too time-consuming to list the many things Neil Keenan and his "Group K" have already done to assist Asia. So, this message is going to be a brief one; as the latest news traveling on the grapevine relays that Neil is preparing to return here shortly to complete what only he could have started.

On many occasions, Mr. Keenan's left hand and right hand appear to be both engaged – albeit in entirely different activities; such that nobody has a chance to keep abreast of his activities, let alone surmise what is going to eventuate from them. His sagacity has been proven in many ways. One day in the future his story will be told in a deserving fashion.

For now, suffice it to say that if given the financial resources equivalent to that of a small nation, Neil Keenan would oversee the planet in ways that improve the lives of all of humanity while facilitating the foundations of a promising future – with the release and proliferation of new technologies that until recently have been maliciously suppressed by the greedy, so-called 'elite.'

Rumor has it that the Elders throughout Asia are waiting for Mr. Keenan's reappearance. I personally know there are four or five individuals who are longing to be able to count down the days.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Mr. Keenan continues to develop alliances with many new names and faces over here in Asia, people who are willing to open their vaults and show him what we have that may be implemented for prosperity and to assist not just Indonesia but the globe in its entirety.

Over the years Mr. Keenan has learnt a great deal in building his many previous successful business ventures, and he is now going to apply this knowledge to numerous pioneering efforts. Neil Keenan is absolutely a trail-blazer who “thinks outside of the square” in effectuating what would be unthinkable accomplishments to lesser minds.

For too many years smaller minds in the Western world believed they could continue to steal Assets from the Global Accounts with impunity. The so-called ‘elite’ whom regarded those outside their circles as “little men” are destined to discover that the high esteem in which they held themselves – was nothing but a frivolous delusion.

The machinations and thievery practiced up until now by the tyrants of the Western world, dear friends, are about to be quashed in a multitude of ways. I will not list these methods for reasons of confidentiality, but I can wholeheartedly assure you that justice will be done. From my perspective in knowing Mr. Keenan as I do, he requires those of us in Asia to support and assist him in whichever ways that we may be able to.

As the result of upcoming actions that are to be taken, we are going to be looking at a phenomenally productive boom for not only our people here but all of the peoples of the world. Whilst speaking with Neil Keenan one evening recently, he shared some insight in terms of the surprises held in store for us, upon his forthcoming return to Asia.

I believe Mr. Keenan is eager to move despite his recent health issues (visited upon him by those who continue with attempts to thwart his mission), along with the tragic kidnapping of his dear friend three months ago; who was closer to him than anyone.

Mr. Keenan continues to persist in seeking her recovery, and he hopes to have this realized in the short term. Neil now has excellent professional assistance by way of specialists whose expertise in tracking allows him to move on to the pressing business at hand in Asia.

And so, you would do well to ready yourselves for Neil Keenan and the Keenan Group – Chapter Two; and beyond. Please make haste, Mr. Keenan, we all need the fruits that will be borne of your efforts; and far more than the vast majority are aware. Group K, physically carry him if that is what is required. In actuality he is vastly more than just one person; he is the answer.

Respectfully,

The Asian Insider”

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Ben Who? Indonesia Here I Come, Right Back Where I Started From

April 15, 2018

NFK Update: 20180408 Fulford Monaco Accord

From the very beginning of this extraordinary journey, I have seen and experienced so many seemingly unbelievable things; having tangled myself within the vast web and ongoing intrigue of the Global Accounts, as well as presenting the amazing new technologies to 'We the People.'

The best news is my health is slowly improving, as I am thankfully starting to feel better. Also, I'm being supported by my loyal team; great people doing great things! After all this time one would think that it's time to say, "Adieu", but not in this case as long as there is a "living" Neil Keenan (not withstanding Ben Fulford's recent "fake news" of my so-called "death") is working along with those patriots who continue to assist me.

On the other hand, more positive results are coming in strong, and it is near time to leave for the US and Asia. The world is opening up for us in new ways, and we want to take advantage of such things in order to benefit humanity.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

I may first fly to the US in order to assist in the recovery of a Group K colleague. I've been involved in this search for over 6 months and will be there if or when the colleague is released.

Fortunately, I can handle most everything with my computer... no matter where I go. This gives me the wherewithal to be flexible in making plans or changing them if required. I have waited a long time to leave for distant lands, and along with flying which may require some adjustment and acclimation, this will put me to the test. I'm more optimistic now that I'm able to do whatever needs to be done or near to where they should be at last!

I pray, I have a truly successful journey and will be talking to you shortly. Thanks to each one of you who've sent prayers and good wishes along the way. They are greatly appreciated!

All the Best,

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Malaysian Dead Man Walking Caper – Part 2

June 17, 2018

This is the continuation to the previous Part 1 complaint that raised the roofs of the Malaysian Government and helped sort out the blatant corruption of Malaysian PM Rajib Nazak and his political cronies.

Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak

The close to this is coming much faster than planned with the new PM Mahathir's administration not allowing any grass to grow under their feet. Kudos to you Mr. Prime Minister and please be aware that someday soon I will need to discuss something with you in private which relates to your banking. Once again Kudos and as for the rest of you, enjoy Part 2 of what will be one of the smelliest scams that has ever taken place. Skill or art is not in question here. They just went in and grabbed and now they face the piper as everyone always does (sooner or later). Enjoy your read.

Malaysian Dead Man Walking Caper – Part 2

With the recent change in the Malaysian Government (for the better), I can now release more information concerning the “Dead Man Walking Case” for the new investigating authorities to research. This is a case of utter corruption and abuse of power by the outgoing Malaysian Prime Minister, Najib Razak (also as the Minister of Finance), the Deputy Prime Minister (and Minister of Home Affairs), Zahid, together with other local officials and Banksters. This is a clear case of intentional and attempted national and international theft of the financial assets of a Malaysian citizen as part of the 1MDB scandal. And Dead Men will be walking ALIVE AGAIN.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | ROBERT SWAN MUELLER III: Chief Terrorist Of America's Secret Political Police

June 19, 2018

ROBERT SWAN MUELLER III Chief Terrorist of America's secret political police would have—in an earlier time—had been the perfect choice to head the Federal Bureau of Investigation. During this period of time the Bureau played a key role in covering up airline sabotage – such as the Watergate plane crash in Chicago, one month after Nixon was re-elected President, in 1972. Twelve Watergate figures died in that crash, including Dorothy Hunt, the wife of the Watergate burglar, E. Howard Hunt. Together they had blackmailed two million dollars out of the Nixon White House.

They held documentation that detailed Nixon's role in the assassination of President of John F. Kennedy.

The details of this air disaster, supported by 1,300 pages of suppressed government documents were exposed in a book written by Sherman Skolnick that was stopped in the press cycle by the Rockefellers. At the time, the Rockefellers held a majority ownership stake in United Airlines. A former FBI official and later Mayor of Memphis, Tennessee, covered up the role of the FBI in the murder of Martin Luther King, Jr.

As part of this pattern of cover-up and bloodshed is Robert Swan Mueller III. Mueller was a key official in the Criminal Division of the Justice Department during the administration of George Herbert Walker Bush. Mueller supervised the bombing of Pan Am Flight 103, which crashed over Lockerbie, Scotland, in December of 1988, about six weeks after the Elder Bush was elected President. A group of eight, or as many as fifty CIA covert operatives were on board Flight 103. Disgruntled, they were returning from a failed mission to attempt to rescue some American hostages in the Middle East. Continued:

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE Gotcha: Big Pharma Exposed Ultimate Vaccine Fraud Expose

July 2, 2018

What you are about to read is something the Deep Swamp never wished for anyone to see. “Mark Randall” (a pseudonym name) has decided to expose the Vaccine Fraud. As a vaccine researcher for many years in major Pharmaceutical Laboratories and at the U.S. government’s National Institute of Health, “Mark” determined that now is the time to speak out as he can factually prove that vaccinations are much more harmful than helpful, as well as forewarn people of the U.S. Federal Government plans to make vaccinations mandatory

It’s very important and made clear that “Mark’s” detailed information has NEVER been made public before. Earlier attempts to release this interview have been subverted – hard copies have been burned and people who were involved in trying to release this information have been threatened. Upon receipt, Group K has opted to distribute this critical information to expose a wide array of matters.

Furthermore, this plan was much in line with the NWO's Agenda 21 or Agenda 30 (humanitarian control and depopulation). To unfathomable that the United Nations U.S. Government Corporation intend to release bio-weaponized vaccines as a means to destroy our families and communities. “Mark’s” expose should cause us to become more aware of the harmful vaccinations, but also provide informational tools to act on in our efforts to prevent Agenda 21-30. Group K expresses its appreciation to “Mark” and to the gutsy Alan Stang in his determination to get this expose out after most records of this interview were destroyed to prevent public exposure.

I hope this gives us all a better perspective on what is going on in that crazy swamp in their attempts to eliminate us. At the end you will shake your head in disbelief and say to yourself GOTCHA. Yet in fact do we and who is going to move? And now here is the groundbreaking interview; despite the many efforts to thwart its release. – Neil Keenan:

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | PREFACE TO SEVEN SPIRITUAL RITUALS

Preface

The eons of Ancient Golden Dragon Family “Depositors” assets and Soekarno Heritage Funds have collectively become known as the “Global Collateral Accounts” (GCA). As the ‘elected’ Amanah, Neil Keenan is the ultimate Trustee with full legal authority over the GCA assets by possessing the Financial ‘Holy Grail:’ The Book of Maklumat, Black Book of Codes, Book of Conveyance Ledgers and the Black Screen Accounts.

The Enigmatic Golden Dragon Family for Eons

Count Albert of the Dragon Family and GCA Mentor to Neil Keenan

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

The AMANAH is directly responsible and with full Global legal authority over the Dragon Family deposits in all Western Banks and the assets stored in over 300 bunkers in Indonesia alone. Also, Trustees of South Korea, China, Taiwan, Vietnam, Thailand, Philippines and Malaysia GCA Bunkers have approached Amanah Keenan to consider becoming the administrative authority in the protection and management of their secretive bunker assets. Resulting from decades of pillaging of the 'Depositors' Bunker assets and fraudulently mirroring the Global Accounts, these countries need both strong protection and proper ways to manage their assets for humanitarian projects.

The AMANAH title is only given to one who has shown compassion, concern, care and love for humanity, especially for those in Indonesia and the people of all other Eastern nations, as seen through a lifetime of dedicated accomplishments in the fight for what is Right and Righteous. The Elders conditions for consideration of a unique contender to become the 'elected' Amanah were: One must be a renowned, independent entrepreneur with an inner circle of influential international business executives; has top-tier financial ties with powerful political connections; has been active in exposing and terminating the Cabal-Illuminati pirating the secretive GCA Bunkers and fraudulently using-mirroring the 'Depositors' assets; and willing to take on the challenge without any financial support from the Dragon Family.

This is a heroic challenge and proving ground fraught with personal and professional risks. Although being metaphysically envisioned thirty years ago, Neil Keenan's recognition and 'elected' title of Amanah was not bestowed lightly by the Elders. Being revered as Amanah, was earned through Neil Keenan's fearless ways, gallant actions and spiritually attained. It is given only to ONE who is disserving of the highest honor.

In respect to Mr. Keenan proving his adept abilities in fulfilling his Dragon Family Financial Instruments SPOS Mandate, filing his Trillion Dollar Cabal Lawsuit, saving Indonesia from Cabal 'unnatural' destruction, securing the GCA Bunkers and protecting the 'Depositors' assets for the past eight years; the Elders began an Amanah phased assay initiation. The 2014 initiation required Keenan to return to Indonesia as the first invited 'westerner' to enter a Dragon Family 'Depositors' secretive Bunker.

Having been 'invited' to access to one of the 'Depositors' Bunkers by the Guardian Elders was not without multiple unforeseen challenges. A number of clearances by the Elders were required before Neil and Jo could enter the bunker, but they remained undaunted. They experienced long delays, lack of sleep, sparse shelter conditions and confronting con-artists while on standby for entry at a still unknown location.

In his efforts to fulfill his obligatory initiation by honoring and funding the Elders who guarded the designated Bunker for generations, Neil was introduced to Yulianto and Satrio. The two offered their services to deliver Neil's $20,000 funds to the Elders in their jungle village. Unfortunately, these two were swindlers as the Elders and their village never received the $20,000 causing Neil to secure another round of funds. Neil never forgets and is in pursuit of the swindlers, Yulianto and Satrio, who've hidden deep in the Indonesian jungle. Neil will relentlessly seek justice for his stolen money.

In a historic precedent of enormous consequence, Neil Keenan became the first Westerner to be invited by the Elders to enter a secretive 'Bunker'—a vast repository of the 'Depositors' wealth comprised of: gold, jewels, museum artifacts, modern global currencies in all denominations, as well as, invaluable documents detailing the truth behind some of the atrocities committed against humanity. The historic documents will be used to fortify Neil's lawsuit when it is re-filed and ultimately takedown the Cabal.

This particular bunker—one of approximately 1,000 in Indonesia and throughout Asia—is a 16-acre, 4-level underground cavern filled with treasures accumulated for eons during the centuries of Spice Routes and Silk Roads and deposited by the Dragon Family over decades through the present years.

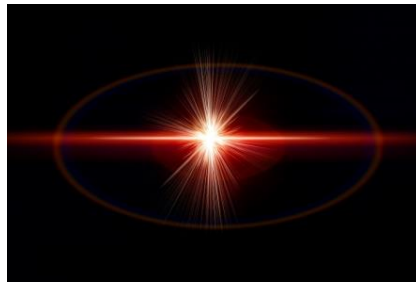

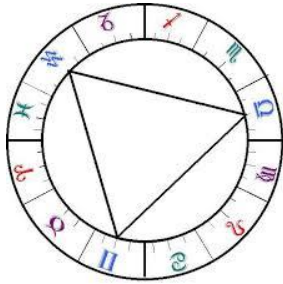

As a token of appreciation for his extraordinary work, the Elders—per the Prince who oversees a warehouse of 'Depositors' assets—gave Neil Keenan a box containing gold bars. Neil shows the sealed box being pried opened with the gold bars inside.

Transformative Trine—Three Light Photons Convergence—Spiritual Trinity

Upon fulfilling his 2008 Dragon Family 'Depositors' SPOA Mandate and securing the Global Collateral Accounts (GCA) the past decade; Neil Keenan returned to Indonesia on July through November of 2018 for the Elders Seven Spiritual Rituals as 'metaphysical proof' to be 'elected' as Amanah—aligned with a transformative trine of two Solar Eclipses, Blood-Moon Lunar Eclipse and Draconid Perihelion Meteor Shower.

Neil was challenged by three intertwining tracks during the Cosmic Trine Solar and Moon Eclipses from July through October 2018:

- First, was to experience and achieve the Seven Rituals to be 'elected' by the Indonesian Elders as Amanah.
- Second, was in pursuit of releasing the Jinn by opening a Bunker, receive the Book of Maps, open and auditing numerous secretive 'Depositors' Bunkers. [Below: Amanah Keenan and Nelu reflect in two audio conversations on their experiences of the Seven Spiritual Rituals, Spiritual Scepters, Jungle trek to the Bunkers, and other metaphysical transformations and adventures.]
- Third, was to encounter the Boards of Governors of the World Bank Group and International Monetary Fund (IMF) at their Annual Fall Meeting in Nusa Dua, Bali, Indonesia, October 8-14, 2018 to discuss a range of issues related to poverty reduction, international economic development and finance.

Neil Keenan was accompanied by a friend, Group K members and later joined by his family. In expectation of Neil Keenan's appearance, the Sultan had specifically selected the Elders, Yunus and Tomo, to perform Neil's seven spiritual rituals, as well as witnessed by numerous Indonesian Elders. Neil was also joined by Charles, Nelu as his translator and guide, as well as joined later by Jo, Thomas and his family for the finale.

The Magic-Man had multiple roles in Neil's Amanah transformation. One was to provide insight as to Neil's manifesting money, seven spiritual rituals and Soekarno's scepters he was gifted by the Elders, as well as a spiritual conduit to the King Jinn and Jinn.

Magic-Man goes to a cave for days to astral travel and spiritually connect to the Jinn and other spiritual entities. His other key role was to lead Neil and his crew to a secretive Bunker and the Guardian's gravesite—to release the Jinn.

Neil's long-time friend, Charles, flew from Michigan to arrive in Jakarta on July 11, 2018 to be his trusted witness of Neil's Seven Spiritual Rituals and receiving his initial 'elected' Amanah Agreement on August 18, 2018, which still needed the Sultan's signature.

Charles met up with Neil in his hotel on July 22, 2018 to witness the first Spiritual Ritual, the Flower Bath. On July 22, 2018, the waxing gibbous moon moved through the Scorpio constellation.

I. SPIRITUAL FLOWER BATH RITUAL

A ‘spiritual’ bath is a ritual – much like the spiritual-magical-ritual baths of ancient Egypt and Rome — that actually cleanses your chakras, revitalizes your aura, and leaves you feeling more present, and in an extremely positive state of mind. This spiritual regeneration occurs not merely from the comfort of soaking in warm water, but from energies imparted by the powerful oils, herbs or crystals you have added to the bathwater.

ANCIENT ASIAN FLOWER SPIRITUAL AND VIBRATIONAL BATH RITUAL

Vibrational Ritual Bath

Ritual cleansing symbolizes the purification of a person’s Spiritual Body, and is done before doing any spiritual work. Using a mix of Roses, Jasmine and Kaffir lime for a Full Moon cleanse and Eucalyptus for a New Moon cleanse. But what is the significance of these flowers and why is it practiced on the Full and New Moon? House of Ascend briefly explains the history of this practice and its prevalence in Asian society today.

Mandi Bunga’ or "Flower Bath" is a popular cleansing ritual in Thailand, Malaysia, Indonesia and Singapore, where it is believed to ward off bad luck, cleanse and protect the person’s aura. This ritual carries the elements of Hindu-Buddhism and dynamism, the belief of a "Spirit" in every human, animal, plants, living beings, written and spoken word.

Bali Spiritual Flower Bath Spa

In Hindu belief, these plants have each a different purpose for their usage in a ritual. Kaffir Lime works to expel stale or stuck energy, while the round-oval shape represents the world as the “Chakra” in a macrocosm. The Ancient traditional recipe on traditional Javanese flower bath involves 7 types of the following flowers: Rose, Canangrium, Scortechinii, Mimusops Elengi, Agave Amica, Ylang-Ylang, Magnolia and Jasmine.

It is believed that the floral concoction, combined with chanting mantras, prayers or strongly visualized intentions, will produce the desired results. A well-known cleansing ritual is the Melasti purification ceremony in Balinese culture, which sees a large procession heading to the beach to cleanse in mass at the sea. These cultures take part in ritual cleansing for purification, while other belief systems harness the power of water to manifest.

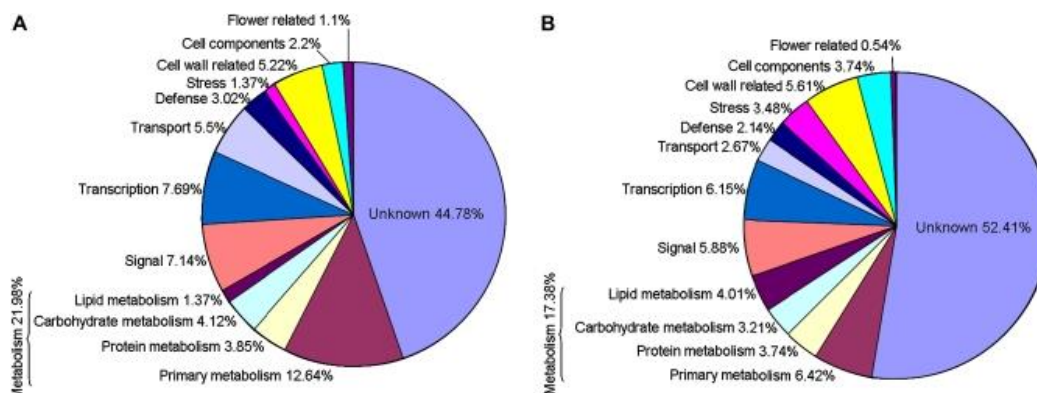

The healing, soothing effects of water connects us with our Emotional Body, allowing one to surrender and receive. The Lightness and Darkness of the Full and New Moon phases may present an opportunity for us to reflect on both aspects of our self. Its best to practice release and purification on the Full Moon, while the New Moon is a time to set intentions for the next Lunar cycle.

The light of the Full Moon represents the illumination of our shadows and the shedding of things that no longer serve a purpose. The New Moon represents fertile ground of which sprouts the seed of our intentions. As the Lunar phase's waxes and wanes in each cycle, our spiritual body goes through a cycle of purification and integration.

Water is intrinsically linked to the phases of the Moon; it commands the tides in the sea, and it has profound impact on our emotional body. By accessing our emotions, we tune into our Heart center, and we can create the reality we desire from an authenticity. After a cleansing ritual, we may feel significantly calmer, more grounded and clear-headed. Our bodies may feel rejuvenated, and we may feel re-energized and inspired to accomplish magnificent things.

Many initiation rites begin with a ritual bath. No Amanah aspirant had successfully passed the bath procedure as the first Amanah ritual. The Spiritual Flower Bath took place in a Semarang hotel overseen by a roomful of Elders and curious witnesses.

Being informed that past Amanah initiates became seriously ill or had died from the Flower Spiritual Bath Ritual, Neil realized that the magical, spiritual and frequency vibrational concoction of flowers, oils, water and intentions were more potent than the traditional, ancient flower bath.

Thus, the “blessing” intent of the flowers, oils and water influences the structure, polarization and energy levels of water molecules. If the “intent” of the blessing is harmonious then positive results often result. However, if the person being bathed is in dis-harmony with the frequency of the Bath, then serious consequences can result and that is exactly what happened to all previous aspirants as they failed to even get past this first ritual.

The “unhappy camper” in the bath was Neil Keenan, who hadn’t had a blessed bath since his baptism, but he patiently acquiesced, stripped down to his shorts and slipped into a flower and oil imbued bath of blessed water. In his mind, it was a bit of a “girly thing” and not something a ‘Macho Man’ would do. He endured, a bit disgruntled and uncomfortable, but with some unexpected results.

The bath water was infused with positive spiritual intents by the invoked prayers of the Elders. These blessings alter the frequencies of the water and anyone who bathes therein. To the on-looker, one just sees the ceremony, but spiritual Elders see something much different. The water becomes “alive” with high vibrational energy.

Neil’s soaking was meant to physically alter his body’s frequency often seen as an aura. Although he was uneasy and self-conscious about a room full of people watching an old man taking a flower bath —upon Neil’s exodus from the bath water and drip dried with flower petals falling into the puddles at his feet—witnesses saw a golden-glow aura emitting from Neil’s spiritual-physical essence.

All present could clearly see! He was shining! Neil GLOWED in GOLD!

Neil not only survived from his Spiritual Flower Bath immersion, but he emanated a Golden Aura from the effects of the ritual.

Charles, who had never seen anything like this before, just sat there with his mouth open. Nelu just had big eyes. The Elders present just smiled. The Flower Bath was a success. Neil was intentionally ‘imbued’ and spiritually ‘ascended.’

Neil was just happy to get his clothes back on and hoped that he wouldn’t have to do that ever again. Although, the gold aura effects of this blessed Bath would materialize later when he became “Gold Finger” upon receiving President Soekarno’s Transfer of Power Scepter, as well as continuing to become more pronounced in the present.

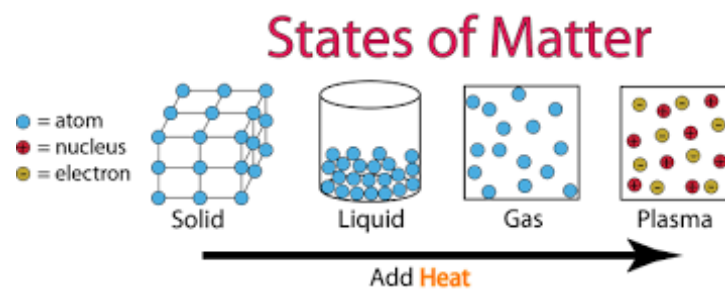

The body simply needs to physically adjust to a higher vibration level and that takes time, cleansing and lots of rest. Since his Flower Bath Ritual, Neil’s spiritual, telepathic and psychic abilities have significantly increased.

Neil's 'Golden Aura' was much more than a frequency vibrational clearing and activating Chakra Auras. In the realm of aetheric quantum physics, the golden aura metaphysical morphoses of Neil Keenan can be probed both spiritually and scientifically. Unbeknownst to Neil, while he was imbued in the Spiritual Flower Bath, his Celtic spiritual and metaphysical aspects revved up his 'good vibrations' into the 4th and 5th frequency states of water and matter.

The Egyptians, Aztecs and other Ancient civilizations were known for worshipping the Sun God. The Egyptian Pharaoh Ra with his spiritual baths and metaphysical rituals—was renowned for his Golden Aura, as well as Biblical Saints, Ascended Masters, Gurus and Mystics have been depicted emitting golden auras and glowing halos.

When one contemplates the word Aura and its hidden meaning—AU(GOLD)RA(RAY)—it became apparent to the Elders that Neil ascended to a spiritual and metaphysical essence to 4th-5th—Golden Aura Plasma-Tetra—State.

In Century III, Nostradamus quatrain inferred "The occult gold will be known to science by the year 2000:"

The divine word will give to the substance that which contains heaven and earth, occult gold in the mystic deed:
Body, soul and spirit have all power
all is below his feet, as at the seat of heaven.

The Secret of Secrets

II. WATER FALL AND RIVER STREAM LAKE SPIRITUAL RITUAL

On the full moon on July 27, 2018, the Rod and Orb spiritual sign ritual took place on a pitch-black moonless night—even though the full lunar eclipse was on July 27th—at the end of a trek through the jungles of Indonesia, passed rivers and waterfalls and culminating on a small rocky outcrop jutting out into an obsidian lake... somewhere.

The late-night hike began at a remote village where Neil and team were greeted by people when they arrived, which was a bit of a surprise. Neil's giving gifts to the village people was pre-arranged by the Elders as the path into the jungle was behind the village. Village children were banned from entering the path to the lake area because of the real dangers lurking there. Neil was unsure as to why the families were clapping, but perhaps it was that he was the first hero who may have a chance to come out alive.

So, the dauntless trekked through the path to the lake—what was basically an animal track trail through the jungle—swarmed by a cloud of mosquitoes that for some reason avoided Neil and the Elders leading the way, but targeted Charles and Nelu. These were the same guys that had just days before had chided Neil about smelling so “rosy.” Now they were sweaty and smelly, trudging through a jungle full of leaches, poisonous spiders and snakes, creatures of the night rustling the undergrowth with only cell phone lights to guide them along an overgrown path.

The trail led past gurgling streams, small flowing rivers, a tumbling waterfall and finally arriving at rocky slice of land jutting out to the river streaming into a small lake. The wet-moss and mud-covered rocks were extremely slippery so one mis-step would cause a serious injury or fall into the dark abyss. Neil, Charles and Nelu spent a half hour saving each other from disappearing into the black waters.

By the time the trekkers arrived to their initiation ritual destination it was really dark... pitch black dark! The Elders led Neil to a spot next to the river and told him to sit there and wait for a sign. Getting to his designated rock spot was like a 'slip and slide' as Neil had to carefully take each slippery step as he maneuvered over the rocks.

Neil Keenan sitting on the slippery stone as
Yunus and Toma meditated on the higher rocks

It was not an honorable throne, but he was glad to be down and safe on the terraform at last. He was not a 'Happy Camper' as he sat there in the dark, contemplating his fate.

Yunus and the Tomo then scampered like monkeys over the rocks and found suitable perches on the rockfall from which to meditate and conduct their ritual prayers. It seemed like hours passed in the pitch black and in a strangely silent jungle while Neil sat there on soggy slimy stones, wondering...

He even called out to Nelu saying, "We are all going to die tonight!" This, of course, upset Nelu to no end. "Do you really think so Sir?" "Yes!" replied Neil, "One more step and you can disappear into the black water and we won't ever see you again." Nelu froze.

Charles was chuckling inside, but worried too as the biggest jungle he had ever been in was a golf course and never on a moonless—although a full moon night—so he too was sitting there, contemplating that he also had "no way out."

It should be understood that rituals of this nature are often done in the dark and in secluded areas. This involves the summoning of spiritual entities and the manifesting of physical objects. In this case since multiple Elders were present, there would be a number of Spiritual Masters present to conduct this ritual test.

For those who have never seen "manifesting" before, it is a bit of a shocker. Objects or entities appear virtually out of "thin air" or in this case "water". The spiritual explanation of this is that higher dimensional beings through intent are able to lower the frequency vibration of a higher dimensional object to such an extent that it manifests as matter in the 3rd dimension.

Simply the process is one of reducing a higher vibration to a lower one and in the process some heat is released. Manifested objects are normally warm when first received or give off some visible light, such as Neil's "golden glowing" experience. This ritual test involved these spiritual elements.

After what seemed to be a long time involved in invoking prayers, Yunus and Tomo came down from their rocky perches and handed Neil "a bag of dirt"! Neil is now standing there with "His bag of dirt", seriously contemplating throwing it at Nelu because of the inconvenience he was currently experiencing.

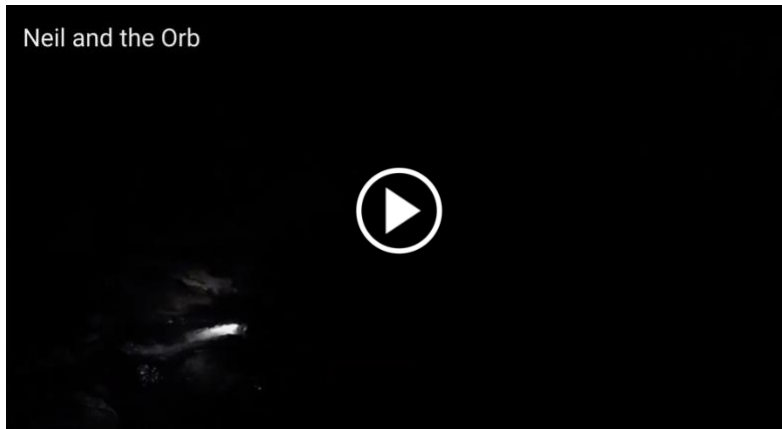

Yunus then explained that Neil was to drop the bag of dirt onto the ground and see what would happen... if anything. So, everyone gathered around Neil with their cellphone LED's shining. Neil raised his bag of dirt on high and ceremoniously plopped it onto the ground. The curious on-lookers didn't breathe. They waited for a few minutes in silence. Tomo then slowly opened the bag. Yunus and the other Elders looked in.

Inside the bag a beautiful flower appeared! Neil peeked in and saw a white, yellow and black colored bloom. "Did you see that!" was exchanged between nodding heads. Where in the World did that come from!?

The Elders told Neil that this was a "sign" for them to continue. So up to the rocks and more prayers... and more anticipatory silent darkness as Tomo was whispering to spirits in the darkness.

The darkness dragged on. Finally, Tomo came down off his rock and took Neil by the hand and conducted a transfer of spiritual energy into him as a conclusion to the ritual ceremony. Following Tomo's energy transfer to Neil, Yunus recharged Tomo as he was exhausted. Then Nelu shouted, "Sir, look! There is a light in the water!" And sure enough, rising up from the bottom of the river was a clear white light.

Neil and the Orb

Neil saw a swirling light Rod, but everyone else saw it as a glowing white Orb that came bobbing up and out of the water, lighting up the whole surroundings! The funny thing was that the “Rod” was in a different location than the Orb! Neil kept insisting that it was a “light Rod not an Orb” so Nelu told Neil what he was seeing was vibrating at different frequency than the Orb, which everyone else were seeing. The Rod was what Neil was supposed to “see.” It was only afterwards while viewing the ritual images, that Nelu discovered the Rod that Neil saw as it was digitally verified in the photo.

The glowing rod seen by Neil and the orb was a clear SIGN that the Elders had been waiting for! Yunus and Tomo gallantly attempted to capture the white-water Orb to seal it in a crystal ball for Neil to tap into its energy, but to no avail. “Oh sure,” said Neil, “Over slippery stones and along an unseen jungle trail in the dark with no Light!” The Elders just smiled and said, “Mari! (Come).” So, Neil, Nelu and Charles clamored along behind the Elders as they slipped and slid back to solid ground.

THE ORB'S LIGHT EMANATED AS IT LIT THE WAY ALL ALONG THE JUNGLE TRAIL...AND BACK TO THE CARS!

The radiating light usually happens with Ascended Masters or Angelic Beings, whose aura is a bright white light. The Rod and Orb light experience was obvious to Yunus and Tomo that they were being accompanied by entities who are extremely powerful on their trek back through the jungle. They knew the meaning of this honor being bestowed on Neil. Neil was just thankful to have something lighting his path to return to the hotel.

Talk about people minds being blown who hadn't been exposed to supernatural and spiritual entities. It was a paranormal 'light show' trek in silence through thick jungle in the middle of the night. None were willing to talk... being mesmerized by an "enlightenment" experience along their path, especially wide-eyed Charles and Nelu.

It was a quiet drive back to their hotel. Neil was smiling and thinking "that was fun," but not admitting that it was one of the strangest experiences he had ever seen. He pinched himself for sure as his second ritual was passed surprisingly easily. It had been a long dark and eventful night; it was a time for a rest and reflection. The third ritual test would be coming soon...

Universal Dynamic Light Photons and vibrating DNA-Energy Fields are evidenced in the infamous NASA STS-75 Tether Incident—which aren't UFO's, but aetheric energy fields that resemble the remote African Dogon Tribe's carved donut-notched ritual stones and whirled beads, as well as their detailed star map.

The giant mass of DNA pulsating aetheric space Orbs, as documented and measured by NASA's 12-mile-long tether, are on a greater grander in scale than the Orb and Rod (Dynamic DNA Energy Fields) that Neil, Nelu, Charles and the Elders witnessed at the River Lake at his second spiritual ritual per the NASA video below:

Elders' Gift: The Amanah Transfer of Power Tongkat (Scepter)

Upon arriving in Semarang on July 28, 2018, Neil and his crew settled in at a nice hotel with a restaurant nearby with chalets perched over huge Koi ponds. This was a serene setting that was a welcome reprieve after a week of driving around East and Central Java and the testing everyone's spiritual souls.

Neil rather liked this restaurant because he could sit on the veranda overlooking the ponds and masses of Koi would come swimming over to pay homage to him and the crew. Of course, the fish were congregating because Neil was feeding them, but it was a good feeling to have a congregating audience of fish and soon to be the people of Indonesia gathering in honor him as Amanah.

Being the Amanah is an honored position of responsibility towards Indonesians and humanity. It is far more than just tossing crumbs to a school of Koi. Neil was in awe and deeply moved by the responsibility of the mantle now upon his shoulders. He was humbled and in gratitude for the insight given by a simple school of fish.

The cognitive and spiritual realization of the deeper meaning of his responsibility for the Global Collateral Accounts, distributing billions-trillions-quadrillions of funding and overseeing humanitarian projects, especially for the Indonesian people was a powerful reality check. Neil sensed the true spirit of Bang Soekarno manifesting within him, as he contemplated and appreciated the golden Koi coming to him.

Yunus and Tomo arrived at the hotel with big smiles on their faces and carrying an Elders' gift of the initial rituals' recognition in their hands. The gift was a heavy object encased in a black cloth sarong. Tomo held it on open palms while Yunus explained to Neil that this was a very powerful object and if touched with bare hands, it could burn you or worse. Neil was supposed to be very careful in handling this spiritual scepter.

Neil received the gift from Tomo and asked Yunus, “Does this now belong to me?” Yunus nodded “Yes.” “Well if that's the case,” said Neil, “if it is mine, it should not hurt me.” And with that he slipped the gleaming golden scepter out of its sarong and grabbed it with both hands!

Yunus and Tomo were open mouth stunned. Neil just sat there rolling the shiny object around in his hands... and nothing happened. Neil had been right. It was HIS.

Neil then asked Yunus, “What is this thing?” to which Yunus answered, “This is the Transfer of Power Tongkat (Scepter) given from the Amanah Soekarno to the Amanah Neil Francis Keenan.”

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Oh, wow was the expression on Neil's face. This was physical and spiritual confirmation that Neil had successfully passed the initial key rituals required to become the genuine Amanah. This was the culmination of years of work on his part. It was Neil's Moment.

Neil held the golden scepter with Soekarno's effigy at the crown and he smiled. He then slid the scepter back into its sarong and placed it on a nearby table. Congratulations were exchanged all around and everyone cautiously peeked at this Power object.

On sidenote, Tomo's son touched the scepter with his hand and immediately received 3rd degree blisters on his hand—proof that the scepter was dangerously powerful.

To celebrate receiving the Transfer of Power scepter, Neil treated the crew to a lavish dinner and a night out on the town to relax and have some well-earned fun. Neil's two initial Spiritual rituals had gone exceptionally well and he was still alive.

Tomo, Nelu, Charles, Yunus and Neil Celebrating

Meeting Sri Sultan Hamengku Buwono X

H.E. Sultan of Yogyakarta and Governor of the Province of Yogyakarta

Neil had successfully completed two of the seven major rituals and received the Soekarno's Power of Transfer scepter from the witnessing Elders. To experience the next five phased rituals, Neil was required to meet with the Principal Elder—Sri Sultan Hamengku Buwono X, the reigning Sultan and Governor of Yogyakarta—to receive his instructions, blessings and hopefully his final signature on the Amanah Agreement.

Arrangements were made for this private meeting to take place in the Semarang Military Hotel. This secure location assured privacy and confidentiality as there were to be no witnesses other than Tomo, Yunus and Nelu as Neil's translator. This was a highly secretive meeting of potentially major national and international significance.

The July 29, 2018, date was set and Neil was unceremoniously introduced to the Sultan by Yunus and Tomo with Nelu translating the salutations and introductions. Neil was then motioned to sit next to the Sultan with Nelu seated several feet away to Neil's left. The Sultan asked Yunus and Tomo to sit at a distance to quietly observe.

The Sultan then told Neil that he had five more rituals to pass and that it was customary for Neil to provide each of the Elders who will sign the Amanah Agreement with a "gift" for their honorary roles and being witness to Neil's Spiritual Rituals. The Elders had requested to receive as their gift a vial of "Agra Oil," which is a rare aromatic extract from a jungle tree that grows only in West Papua. The sacred Agra Oil is used by Elders in very special ceremonies.

The meeting was brief with the Sultan emphasizing the appropriate protocols: Neil needs to gift the Agra Oil to the Elders; Yunus needs to arrange the next series of spiritual rituals; Once the final ritual was passed, the Sultan would sign the Amanah Agreement; and then the Sultan and Neil would proceed accordingly.

Almost as an afterthought, the Sultan directly leaned over towards Neil and made a cautionary statement by emphatically conveying to Neil "to put his house in order." Neil clearly understood the seriousness of the Sultan's concern, which affirmed what he had suspected within the Group K Team and his Global associates.

In closing their private meeting, the Sultan and Neil proceeded to acknowledge each other's shared understanding as they shook hands. Neil expressed his gratitude to the Sultan for his time and expressed concerns. Neil promptly returned to his hotel to deal with pending GCA matters as Yunus and Tomo began making plans and organizing arrangements in preparation for the final rituals.

Seeking Agra Oil: Semarang to Cikabumi Adventure

Following Neil's insightful Semarang meeting with the Sultan, the quest for 'Agra Oil' began in earnest.

There are quite a number of essential oil Dealers in every major city in Java, but most only carry small vials of this rare and expensive oil. Locating and securing a large quantity of Agra Oil in a single common batch was a challenging task.

Per the principle of supply of demand, the rare Agra Oil was also a Sellers' Market—where one pays the asking price as the Seller who already knows that you will need this oil for various religious rights or summoning Spirits—you will pay the Seller's price point without haggling or asking for a discount. That's the accepted deal. Take it or leave it.

Required was at least a liter of this Agra Oil and that would cost approximately USD $40,000 in order to fill 30+ vials for one each of the Elders involved in the initiation rituals and their signing of the Amanah Agreement.

As Elders, Yunus and Tomo were familiar with many of the reputable essential oil Dealers. So, with Nelu chauffeuring them around the region, they were able to canvas Semarang and call on Dealers in Jogjakarta, Surabaya and Jakarta. The hunt was on. In seeking the Agra Oil, it was strategically best for Nelu and Yunus to survey the region of the Dealers and Elders as to what would be required for opening the first bunker.

Neil opted to recuperate at the hotel and enjoy the poolside sunshine. Having been a hectic few weeks and Neil was feeling lethargic as his blood pressure and body were adjusting to the new frequencies—he had been exposed to during the spiritual rituals—this normally results in a need to rest and rejuvenate energy levels.

The Keenan crew once again hopped into Nelu's SUV for another 100 KM drive to Sukabumi Province for an overnight stay at the famous Grand Inna Samudra Beach Hotel. Along the way to the hotel, they experienced an unfortunate encounter with a bully bus driver.

Indonesian long-haul bus drivers are selected for their fearlessness and ability to go as fast as they can on the winding highways. On the highway to Sukabumi, Nelu made the mistake of getting in front of one of these daredevils and got, shall we say “nudged from behind”.

He then made the mistake of stopping the bus to inspect the minor damage, but this went from a shouting match between the two drivers to amassing angry crowd, as all the passenger came down and another bus full of supporters joined as reinforcements. Nelu was furious and wanting to fight, but he was seriously out numbered.

Having had experience of untangling a traffic jam before with Jo, Neil jumps out of the car and becomes the ‘referee.’ Standing in the middle of an angry crowd, who didn’t understand a word he was saying, Neil realized it was futile, Neil grabs Nelu and shoved him back in the car. As usual, Neil ended up with the repair bill, but that was better than a roadside brawl. Needless to say, Nelu grumbled all the way to the hotel.

The Grand Inna Hotel

The Grand Inna hotel is famous in Indonesia for Room 308, which is the room that is occupied by the mythical Puteri Laut (Princess of the South Sea traditionally known as Nyi Loro Kidul or Rara Kidul) who is a legendary Indonesian female spirit or deity, known as the Queen of the Southern Sea of Java and is highly respected in Javanese and Sundanese mythology.

Local lore says that she may have once been the Queen of Java (aka the Biblical Queen of Sheba) or a Thai Princess that fled to Indonesia where she walked out of the sea at the location of the hotel. It is also rumored that she was a beautiful woman and a 'spirit wife' of Bong Soekarno who designed and built the hotel for her. And whenever he stayed there, it was always in the closed-door room 308.

Having received President Soekarno's Transfer of Power Scepter and knowing his spiritual relationship with the Queen of the South Seas; Neil figured his chances of having an esoteric encounter with the Queen of the South Seas at The Grand Inna Hotel and being present in the infamous Queen's Room 308 he had 99.9% odds.

Before sharing Neil's account of his esoteric exchange with the Queen and her two skipping Urchin companions, one needs to develop an Indonesian appreciation of the mystical and mysterious Queen of the South Seas Javanese mythology.

The Mystery of Java's Spirit Queen

President Soekarno's commissioned painting of the Queen of the South Seas

The following are an ancient legend and several historical stories about Nyai Loro kidul or "Ratu kidul" (Queen Kidul-Queen of the South Seas) as she is also known, the most beautiful and powerful Goddess of Indonesia's southern seas. Asked if one can see Ratul Kidul, it is known amongst Javanese and Sundanese, "You cannot see the Queen with your eyes open, you can only see her with your heart."

The Mermaid Goddess of the South Seas:

According to the legend, Nyai Loro Kidul was the mortal daughter of a powerful ruler-king of west Java. This king's concubines jealous of her beauty would have used black magic to turn her into an ugly and old witch. Because of her ugliness, she was forced to leave the palace and she started to wander through the forest without direction. When she finally came to the ocean, she stopped to rest and fell asleep. She dreamed that she would be cured of her ugliness if she entered the water and drowned herself. She did drown herself and became the powerful Goddess of the Indonesia's southern seas.

Following the tradition, her favorite color is green and she is attracted to those who wear this color inside her marine kingdom. Besides that, this beautiful, but sometimes evil goddess has a particular interest in surfers—not only because she has absolute power and control over the waves of Indonesia's southern seas, but also takes young men.

Both Javanese and Sundanese people avoid wearing green when they go to her beaches and very often mothers lock their sons at home in nights when a sacred dance in homage to Nyai Loro Kidul is performed. Even for those who are not superstitious, it is always good to be careful. There are recorded stories about surfers and other people who ventured in her waters wearing green and afterwards were troubled by disgrace.

The Sultan and the Mermaid—A Love Story for the Ages:

People who pay special attention to royal affairs of the heart might clip a fingernail or two on June 21 in honor of one of Asia's more magical 'histoires d'amour.' The Hotel room 308 (327) in which Sultan Hamengku Buwono IX made peace with the easily irritated Queen of the Southern Ocean is kept locked and reserved only for her.

On this date Sultan Hamengku Buwono X of Yogyakarta will celebrate his official birthday by trekking twenty kilometers to the dangerous surf on the slate-gray southern coast of Java. There he will offer a full set of women's clothing and his own nail and hair clippings in honor of his 15th century ancestors: Senopati, an historical king of Java, and Nyai Loro Kidul, a mermaid goddess.

The Queen's Room 308 Undamaged from 1993 Hotel Fire:

On 20 Jan 1993, Inna Grand Bali Beach, formerly known as the Grand Bali Beach, was largely destroyed by a massive fire. The fire consumed the entire main building and all but one of the 600 odd rooms. Strangely enough, there are two versions as to why room 308 of the 3rd floor was not burnt at all, with intact interior and singed walls.

Room 308 is special. It's the room the Balinese believe that Roro Kidul, their mythical Goddess of the South Seas, allocated to Sukarno, independent Indonesia's father. The hotel was gutted in the 1993 blaze but room 308 was the only one of 600-odd that survived wholly intact. However, another version tells that President Soekarno received a message when he was praying to spare one room for the Queen, and under Soekarno's instructions, Room 308 has always been reserved for the Queen.

Even today, the room is maintained in the vernacular of the era even though Soekarno never stayed in the hotel. His trademark black peci and white trousers lay on the bed. No one stays in the room but it's cleaned daily. On August 17, Indonesia's Independence Day, Balinese deliver cakes colored the red and white of the flag.

Soekarno's Reserved Room 308 for the Queen of the South Seas

Despite such negative incidents, the sea goddess is not always bad. According to the authors McNeely and Wachtel "She divides her time between land and sea, and appears as a youthful nymph in the first half of the month and as an ugly hag in the second half. Javanese believe her demeanor is at times bitter and malevolent, and that she can only be propitiated by strict observance of complex rituals.

Yet with the fickle nature so typical of both Asian women and Asian gods, when treated properly she can also bestow great favors, such as ensuring a good catch to a fisherman." Or even produce perfect waves for a group of surfers?!

The Javanese mystical tradition is known for its syncretism. In the course of its history it absorbed all the religious traditions that reached Java and gave it its own interpretation.

While waiting for the next round of Spiritual Rituals, Keenan received special permission from the Inna Grand Beach Hotel management to visit with his crew the sacred Room 308, which Soekarno received a message to build the hotel and reserve the room for the Queen of the South Seas.

Unbeknownst to Neil, he was about to have a special, mystical syncretism experience with the Queen of the South Seas.

The spiritual stories surrounding President Soekarno and the Queen of the South Seas, as well as the mystical Room 308 were exciting and enticing to Neil, especially after being told by others that no one is allowed to stay in the Queens reserved room.

While eating outside in the beach dining area, Neil and his crew happened to look up at the outside of the Queen's room 308 only to see the light on the terrazzo (balcony) was on and several people were sitting at a table, while looking down at them. Neil being Neil, waved to them. Neil with his crew witnessed some form of magical manifestation on the 308-terrazzo followed by a unique appearance of the Queen of the South Seas.

Later, Neil had the opportunity to personally enter to offer prayers and experience an overnight stay in the Queen's sacred Room 308. Although, Neil didn't reveal his esoteric experience while in Room 308 — although, he did state that he slept well.

The following morning, while having breakfast, Neil Keenan encountered the Queen of the South Seas regally dressed in her customary flowing 'Green Gown' and accompanied by two skipping young Nymph-Urchins as she proceeded to her table. The Queen paused at Keenan's breakfast table and looked at Neil, with a penetrating soulful stare, which Neil curiously returned her gaze.

After looking deep into each other's eyes for a few moments, the Queen smiled and turned her head slowly as she followed her two Nymph-Urchins, who were skipping and crisscrossing up and down the aisle to the Restaurant's Buffet. Her two-Urchins served her breakfast as she continued to glance towards Neil's table.

Upon departing from the restaurant with her two Urchins, who were still skipping and crossing over each other's path like an X; the Queen in Green briefly paused, nodded with a slight smile to Neil— somewhat like a Goddesses gracious, gesture of approval— which Neil cordially and respectfully acknowledged her.

While reflecting upon the esoteric exchange, Amanah Keenan shared his intuitive thoughts: "Instead of being a beautiful young woman as portrayed in her portraits, the Queen looked like a very old hag with bags under her eyes similar to Ursula in 'The Little Mermaid.' She looked directly at me, as I sensed she was penetrating my 'Amanah Transfer of Power' spiritual connection with the late President Soekarno, as well as affirming the purity of my soul in knowing I was a guest in her sacred Room 308.

Later, Neil became aware of the Java lore that the Queen looks like a beautiful and youthful woman at the first part of the month and becomes an old hag at the last part of the month, which explains why the Queen look old when he had a soul exchange with the Queen as their esoteric encounter was at the end of the month of July.

Soekarno is known to have had a spiritual relation to the Queen of the South Sea and chose this spot to build the hotel and reserve a sacred room in honor of the Goddess Nyi Roro Kidul, the Queen of the South Seas. Perhaps, in receiving Soekarno's 'Transfer of Power' scepter, Neil may have inter-dimensionally intertwined himself with Soekarno and the Queen of the South Seas.

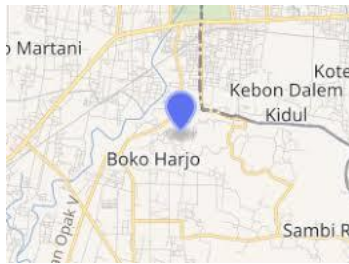

Nyai Roro Kidul: The Indonesian Mermaid Queen of the Southern Sea

An ancient Javanese kingmaker, ruler of the sea and wife to generations of kings; the tale of Nyai Roro Kidul is full of spiritual romance, political drama and secret intrigue, set against the backdrop of the vast Indonesian sea. 'The Queen of the Southern Sea' is probably the single most popular mythical figure in all Java, if not Indonesia. For centuries she has reigned from a seemingly blurry line between myth and reality, inspiring both bedtime stories and academic research.

The beauty and mystique that surround Nyai Roro Kidul have inspired many of the nation's most prominent artists. The artist Abdullah painted Nyai Roro Kidul several times one of his paintings was bought by President Soekarno and remains in the palace's treasured collection. A replica is also displayed at Grand Inna Beach Hotel, inside the Queen's suite in Room 308.

III. SPIRITUAL FIELD RITUAL AT KRATON RATU BOKO

On July 30, 2018, Keenan entourage made their way to the ancient Temple of the King of Boko—Kraton Ratu Boko—a sprawling 16-hectare fortress and temples made from white limestone and black volcanic basal dated back to before 792 AD. This beautiful hilltop complex is near Yogyakarta city and is a major cultural and spiritual attraction. But Neil was not there as a tourist—he was ready for a spiritual ritual—or Eling.

Kraton Ratu Boko, Indonesia

JAVANESE MYSTICAL MOVEMENTS

The original religion of Java was animistic. Prevailing was the belief in powers, nature-spirits and souls of the deceased hidden in the unseen world. The Selamatan is considered to be part of that folklore.

"The homeostasis sought via the Selamatan has an animistic background, which is part of the Javanese cosmology: man is surrounded by spirits and deities, apparitions and mysterious supernatural forces, which, unless he takes the proper precautions, may disturb him or even plunge him into disaster."

To a great extent the Javanese people are guided by the ancient belief, the Kejawen: "Flora and fauna have like man a soul. The animal and vegetable soul are deeper sunk in material existence than the human soul.

Therefore, certain plants and animals may be harmful...The Godhead towers above in serene rest and offers no assistance. The abangan remain two possibilities: surrender - rela-, and worship -bukti. The primitive main concepts recur in 20th century mystical groups, may have never been absent."

Eling is the deepest aspect of the inner life of the Javanese. Mysticism may be said to permeate Javanese life and consequently its vocabulary. Certain Javanese words are hard to understand for us in all their shades of meaning. One is "culture". Another is "Jiwa," which may mean life, but also enthusiasm, spirit, inner self, thought, feeling, mentality, essence, and implication.

Basically, Eling means "remember." With reference to the powers of the Jiwa the word covers everything ever experienced physically or spiritually. Next to the faculties of the jiwa of sight, hearing, speaking, and thinking, Eling connects earlier experiences to what is being experienced now:

Eling as an ethical value—When a person loses self-control, the Javanese will usually advise that it is necessary to regain self-control. Self-control to the Javanese is of high value, if not the highest.

In this context, Eling has more the meaning of consciousness than remembering. It refers to a high level of self-awareness that enables the individual to observe and control all movements of the self, both inner and outer - its actions, words, and thoughts. By being on guard, we enable ourselves to remain in the state of Eling. Eling is a much-used word in Javanese because of its close connection to the deepest attitude of the Javanese to his inner life.

Nelu and Neil entering the Kraton Ratu Boko Temple

Yunus led Neil across the grass to a solitary flat stone—the Queen's Throne. He was told that a former beneficial Queen of Boko used to hold audiences there and meditate while enjoying a cool breeze and the gorgeous view. Neil just sat there while Nelu, Yunus, Tomo and Charles sat on the grass some 30-meters away.

As Neil patiently sat there, suddenly a strong gust of wind came up and blew his hat right off his head! The Keenan crew scrambled to retrieve it and all settled calmly back down to enjoy the view and meditate. Only Neil was hit by that wind, so maybe the Spirits of the Kraton just wanted to blow off his hat to sense his crown chakra.

A few moments later, a small whirlwind collected leaves from the nearby trees and swirled a heap of leaves directly upon Neil. Again, not a leaf on the Elders, Yunus, Nelu or Charles. Things were now getting supranatural. Neil sat there wondering "What's next?" There were more mysticism and spiritual signs were still to come.

Silent moments passed again, allowing everyone time to meditate on what was happening spiritually and metaphysically. Neil and the Elder's contemplation were interrupted when three goats appeared as they strutted from the trees towards Neil.

The goats were frolicking and bleating in front of Neil and suddenly came to a halt as all three began gazing at him. Neil stared back at the bleating threesome like in the movie "Men Who Stare at Goats." In response, the three goats began reveling and gyrating around. Smiling, Neil thanked them for their spiritual essence and fun frolicking. The three goats appeared to bow at Neil as they swaggered their way back into the trees.

What Does It Mean When A Goat Gazes Into Your Eyes?

One thing the study suggests is that goats turn to humans in their environment for help. They not only gazed at the human, but approached, stood for a brief period in front of the human. When the goat is staring at you and not moving, you might falsely observe there's not a lot going on in the goat's head. But this [staring] seems to be a very alert behavior.

Shortly thereafter, a trio of sheep sauntered from the another opening in the nearby trees and bushes. Each horned sheep pranced and paraded before Neil. Altogether in unison, they paused and gawked at him in a penetrating manner for several moments, which Neil returned the gaze that seemed like eternity.

In harmony, the sheep began Baaing with an echoing sound like the 'Trumpets of Jericho.' Neil went Baaaa back at them, while relishing the sounds of the enlightening scene. The trio of sheep acknowledged Neil's playful gaze and baaing by shuffling back and forth together as they slowly turned away and flounced back into trees.

Reflecting upon the mystical trio of sheep, Neil recalled his Catholic school days and his fondness for the Catholic Priests whom mentored him, as well as laughing with the Pope at his produced 500th year Christopher Columbus celebration. In Neil's remembering or Eling, the treasured "The Adoration of the Mystic Lamb" painting was brought to mind — The Lamb of God.

New Research on the Ghent Altarpiece Validates Restorers' Rendering of the Mystic Lamb's Alarming Humanoid Face

The animal's soul-penetrating gaze was painted over by a second set of artists in 1550 and spent the next five centuries under wraps.

"The Eyckian face of the [Mystic] Lamb had forward-gazing eyes and effectively a shorter muzzle than the 16th-century restorer's overpainted face," the study explains.

With this Eling 'remembering' experience, Neil came to the realization that the animistic soul-penetrating-gazing episodes with the trinity of goats and sheep was a significant rite of passage upon which he received the blessings and approval of the ancient Kings and Queens of the Boko Empire. This was indeed a spiritual honor never ever bestowed on a foreigner before, much less even local Javanese Royalty. This was a very special and auspicious occasion.

With the mystical, royal and animistic spiritual blessings over, Yunus signaled to Neil that he had surpassed his third ritual and it was time to depart. Although, there was another surprising parting blessing.

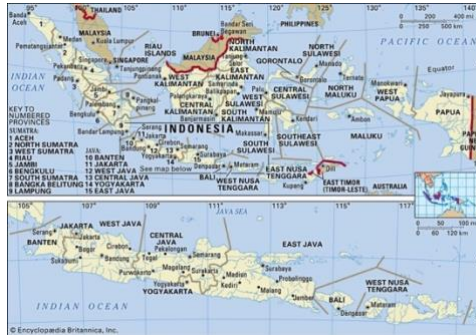

As Neil began walking towards his crew at the exit, he was surrounded by a splendid flock of white cooing and fluttering doves. Neil became camouflaged by the unfurling of feathers as he was surrounded by hundreds of White Doves, encircling him with expanded wings in a spellbinding flapping pageant. The Doves with their wings fully extended like a massive Angelic shield protecting Neil from behind as he left the Kraton

Ratu Boko. The peaceful and protective Dove scene was a poignant end to the royal Animistic ritual and blessing Neil for his next spiritual rituals waiting for him at Blitar.

Neil's crew and Elders entourage was to reassemble in Blitar, East Java, the birthplace and gravesite of President Soekarno. This required carloads of Elders and Neil's team to drive to Blitar. The Elders arrived beforehand to plan Neil's next rituals.

As this would take a couple of days to organize, Neil and Charles were dropped off in Yogyakarta while Nelu drove on ahead to organize accommodations in Blitar. The road from Semarang to Yogyakarta is a 'hellish snake' through the mountains, but the road from Yogyakarta to Blitar is even worse. Thus, Nelu called Neil and asked him to take a short flight to Surabaya as that route was a much better way to go. So, Neil and Charles hopped a flight and met Nelu at the Surabaya airport on August 5, 2018.

Neil was running a bit low on cash so he stuck his debit card into an ATM machine at the airport, punched in his pin number and the amount. As he collected the cash, Neil went to pull his card, but the ATM machine wouldn't let it go! It was a tug-of-war! And the machine WON! The ATM devoured Neil's debit card.

This would be another problem down the road, but at the moment Neil did not have the time to chase down his card, so he immediately called his banker and cancelled the card. Then everyone piled their bags and bodies into Nelu's car for a late afternoon drive to Blitar. It was early evening when they arrived at the Hotel Tugu Sri Lestari in Blitar, which is the same hotel that President Soekarno stayed whenever he returned to his home town.

IV. SPIRITUAL RITUAL SOEKARNO'S BLITAR HOTEL RESIDENCE

Neil making friends with the white lions guarding the hotel entrance

On August 6, 2018, Yunus met Neil at the hotel and told him that he would be staying in Soekarno's room and spending the night sleeping in Soekarno's bed. That was no problem for Neil as it was already late in the evening and he was tired. Yunus then took him to the room and told Neil that he might be visited by an entity between 2am to 4am, but to not be afraid. That was a nice thing to say before going to bed.

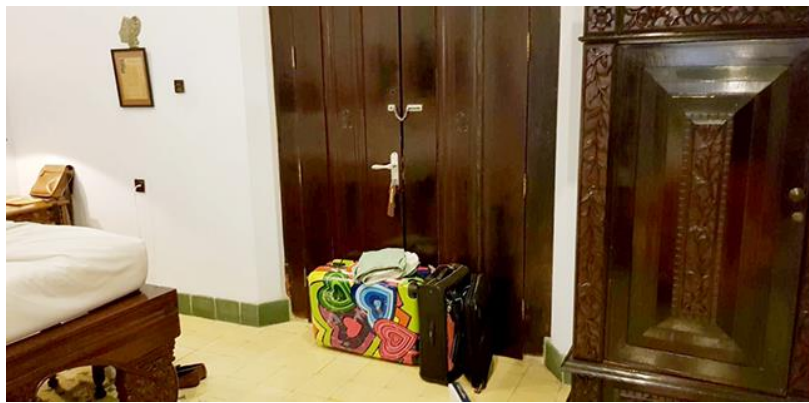

Soekarno's bed and the mysteriously appearing footstool

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

When Neil came into the bedroom, he noticed how high the bed was. Neil noted, "I'm going need a ladder to get into that thing, and pray that I don't roll over and fall out!" In fact, he could roll over and over in the 7'x7' empire bed and jump as high as he could and never touch the 5-meter-high ceiling.

He looked around again and noticed that a footstool had mysteriously "appeared" beside the bed where there was none before. Now, at least he could get into the bed, but there was that lingering thought of what type of entity that may be hiding under the bed. Neil paused, surveyed the room, checked under the bed and thought to himself, "this is gonna be one of those nights!" Of course, Neil was peaked with the "what's next" curiosity before calling it a night. Out of sheer caution, Neil locked the bedroom door and propped his suitcase against it, just in case.

Nothing was going to get through that door without making a noise.

Neil then climbed into Soekarno's empire bed. In a few minutes, Neil was out like a light and into a deep, but restless sleep. Sometime in the dead of night, Neil was abruptly woken and startled! The room was strangely COLD. The hairs on his arms were standing straight up! It was pitch BLACK, but he sensed that "something" was appeared next to the bed, like a gigantic menacing BLACK apparition.

Most people would have screamed and relieved themselves in sensing a menacing monstrous thing—not Neil. He just sat up, looked at the monstrous entity and shouted at it, "Who do you think you are?! This is My Room! You don't belong here! Get the hell out of here! NOW!" Talk about being 'fearless,' Neil stared down the creepy creature and pointed it to the door.

Neil doggedly bellowed his demands to leave until the phantom creature backed away knowing that its apparition mission had failed. The entity escaped by vaporizing thru the door while SLAMMING it so loud that the noise woke up Nelu and the Elders. The hotel security even came scrambling to Neil's room frantically asking "Are you alright?!"

Neil climbed down from the bed, moved his bags from the door which hadn't moved, unlocked the door with a "TA DA! What's the matter? What was that noise?" As if he didn't know in his mischievous ways. Neil told everyone what had happened, but when he got to the part about his demanding that the Phantom Entity to leave his room he said, "I told it to GET OUT my room and go bother Nelu!"

Nelu blurted out "NO, NO! Not ME!" And didn't sleep until after sunrise.

With the dawn came moments of reflection on the strangeness of the night before. Paranormal spiritual challenges may cause cognitive incongruity at times. Being fearless of the dark entities will protect you from harm, but may rattle your nerves. This was the fourth Spiritual Ritual test and the second dark of night metaphysical experience successfully passed by Neil.

In the light of day, Neil got back to the normal business of the Global Collateral Accounts. He set up his laptop on Soekarno's favorite writing desk in the anteroom and began working in his Worldwide Wheelhouse.

Later in the afternoon he toured the hotel with Charles, looking at all the antiques, memorabilia and pictures of Soekarno. It was a relaxing day and a restful relief from the long drive to Blitar and recovering from the paranormal experience the night before.

Neil asked Charles if he would take him for a drive around Blitar in President Soekarno's old Mercedes. Being a history and cultural buff, Neil enjoyed the retro cruising of the Blitar sites and sampling of the Soekarno era. The hometown experience connected Keenan closer to Soekarno and receptive to the first Amanah's power.

V. SPIRITUAL RITUAL PRESIDENT SOEKARNO'S MAUSOLEUM GRAVESITE

In the evening of August 7, 2018, Neil and all were chauffeured to Soekarno's Mausoleum. Neil and his Spiritual Ritual entourage were led into Soekarno's sacred gravesite after the public closing hours for a private viewing and prayers.

Yunus led Neil to President Soekarno's grave and they both knelt in silent prayer before this great First Amanah of Indonesia and Monetary 1 (M1) of the world.

At the end of the prayer and the traditional sprinkling of flower petals on the grave, Neil was asked to look at the large anthracite stone at the head of the grave. Anthracite is compressed coal rock that is comprised of 98% pure carbon.

Soekarno's multifaceted headstone is un-carved, but it reflects light in many fractal forms — causing the high carbon content to emit numerous spiritual influences. The stone is renowned to be highly spiritually inhabited per Indonesian lore.

Neil followed Yunus's guidance and respectfully leaned forward to inspect Soekarno's headstone. At first, Neil noticed an encased, illusionary form beginning to stir within the stone as it came to life. Next, Neil saw the head of a massive white lion manifest from the inner sanctum of the stone and sensed it penetrating his eyes deep into his soul.

Neil wasn't afraid in seeing and sensing the 'White Lion' apparition. Rather, Neil gave it a reverent salutation and thanked the lion for being a fierce spiritual guardian over the earthly remains of Bang Soekarno. Neil expressed his gratitude to the lion for coming forth to greet him as the fractal lion's image merged within the black stone.

Yunus was the first to ask Neil if he had seen anything as he stepped back. Neil just said, "I saw the Friendly Lion."

Yunus smiled, knowing that very few people ever view and acknowledge Soekarno's spiritual Lion Protector. The Elders were satisfied and pleased that the fifth Spiritual Ritual was accomplished. It was now time to return to the hotel for the spiritual vigil.

VI. SÉANCE AND CHANNELING OF SOEKKARNO'S SPIRIT RITUAL

Following the prayer session at Soekarno's mausoleum, a spiritual séance was held late at night in President Soekarno's old office in the anteroom of his bedroom. Neil was ushered into the room by Nelu and Tomo. Yunus was meditating in a seated position at the head of a semi-circle of flickering candles.

Neil was asked to sit on the floor to address Yunus, but he requested to sit on a chair since he was unable to contort his body to sit cross-legged for a prolonged time. Neil was given a low mahogany bench seat to participate in the candle light séance.

The room became quiet and still as each of them sat in deep meditation. Yunus began chanting a ritual incantation. In the midst of his incantation, Yunus's body stiffened causing him to sit straight up. Yunus then powerfully spoke... but it was not his voice!

Neil was taken aback for a moment as he never experienced "channeling" before and it was an unexpected surprise. Most people have heard about séances and clairvoyants speaking with the Dead, but it's significantly a game-changer when you're present, especially for the first time. Yunus's startling and commanding voice change caused Neil to ponder and wonder what was really happening before him.

The enigmatic voice coming out of Yunus directed Tomo to leave the room stating that what he was about to reveal was only intended for Neil hear. Nelu was asked to stay if language translations were needed.

The forceful voice continued by proclaiming, “I am Soekarno.” “I am here to congratulate you Mr. Keenan and to tell you many things about being the Amanah.” This was the first time that Neil had been called “the AMANAH.” Neil listened intently as to what the spirit of President Soekarno was conveying to him.

This channeled proclamation was the First Amanah spiritually acknowledging the New and Only One AMANAH... Neil Francis Keenan. Although, there was no formal ceremony, no anointment with blessed water, no flowers strewn at Neil's feet. It was the presence of two powerful beings coming together in multi-dimensional realms, talking and joking with each other and becoming kindred spirits.

Soekarno did say that “Whatever Neil wants, you are to give it to him, no questions asked.” Soekarno also told Neil that he had to be very careful as there were those out to make trouble for him. Much was revealed, which was only intended for Neil to know. Soekarno assured Neil that he would always be present to spiritually guide him without the need for a séance. Since this first séance exchange, it has been the perpetual case of spiritual contacts and conversations between the two Amanahs ever since.

Before Soekarno left Yunus' vessel, Neil turned to Nelu and told him, “Nelu, you heard him, He was talking about you. Now he is right behind you! He's going to get you!” Nelu shouted “NO Sir!” and ran behind Yunus, using him as a shield. Neil enjoyed pestering and scaring Nelu at every opportunity. While Neil was chuckling to himself, Yunus was still in a state of bewilderment as Soekarno's channeler vessel. Neil was humbled by the significance of the Soekarno séance and was happy that the rituals were coming to a conclusion as he looked forward to a goodnight sleep.

While there are still challenges along the GCA Yellow Brick Road, the brief séance ritual confirmed that Neil had achieved what no one has been able to do. Neil was recognized and honored by the interdimensional spiritual being, Bang Soekarno. Soekarno's spirit expressed his willingness to share his wisdom as the first Amanah and promising to be Neil's trusted inter-dimensional mentor.

More secretive information has been revealed to the 'elected' Amanah as Soekarno fulfills his promise of mentoring Neil in efforts to secure the Amanah's Global Accounts 'Depositors' bunkers and release the assets for Humanitarian and Planetary projects. Neil thinks it's nice to have a spiritual mentor and friend like Soekarno to provide wisdom, support and guidance.

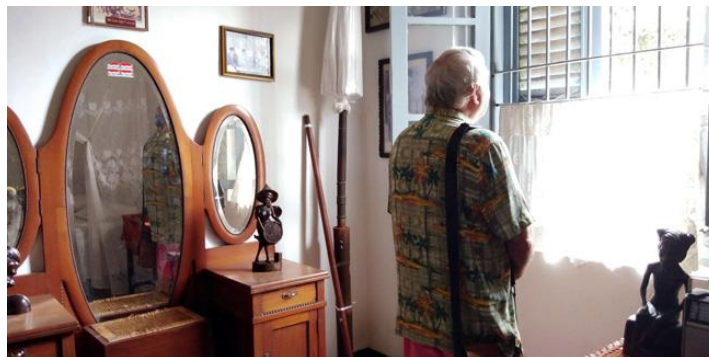

They've become an interdimensional 'Dynamic Duo.' Neil has increased his spiritual adeptness and has continuous spiritual conversations with Soekarno as their mutual and inter-dimensional Amanah friendship has evolved.

Elders Second Gift: The Magical Power Scepter

As the sun shined the next morning, Neil spent precious time in spiritual solitude as a guest in Soekarno's private bedroom of his birthplace home. Now, that Neil possessed the Amanah's 'Transfer of Power' Scepter and had engaged in an affirming Amanah séance, he spiritually senses and converses with the late President-M1-Soekarno.

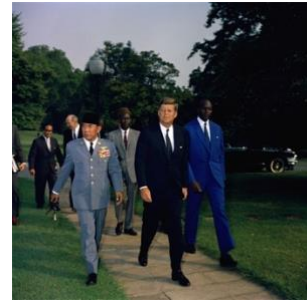

While in Soekarno's historic bedroom, Neil contemplated upon his Odyssey's journey to reach this pinnacle moment as he reflected in admiration of Soekarno's leadership, sacrifices and achievements. [Note more of Soekarno's Staffs-Scepters at the bedside.]

As the designated Elder to administer the Spiritual Rituals and as a representative of the Elders, Yunus surprised Neil while in his state of solitude by appearing with another extraordinary gift. This unique gift was the 'Magical Power Staff' in the form of another Tongkat (scepter). This Tongkat had a different purpose from the Amanah's 'Transfer of Power' scepter—it was made with a brass hilt which connected to a rod that resonated thru a carved hardwood shaft reaching a crescendo at a silver-brass point.

Keenan's "Gold Finger": Shortly after receiving the Amanah's 'Transfer of Power' scepter, an esoteric event transpired that hadn't been experienced before. Neil's middle finger on his right hand from the tip of the finger through his palm turned – Golden!

Neil became alarmed as he often told jokes about appendages turning black and then falling off, but now his own finger has turned Gold... Would it fall off? He rubbed his finger to see if it hurt. No. Was it spreading? No. Did it smell different? No. Neil had no logical or conclusive answer as to the cause and effect, which was a bit unnerving.

In taking a digital picture of Neil's hand, a section with pixels strangely didn't develop properly. It was highly unusual alerting Neil and others to closely inspect the pixelated section of his hand image. Remarkably, within the pixel area above Neil's thumb a head appeared to be emerging—a supernatural phenomenon had occurred.

Neil was experiencing a spiritual merger and quantum entanglement as the aetheric convergence was confirmed by the pixelated image of President Soekarno. Soekarno communicated directly to Neil without a Channeler to not to be concerned about his spiritual transformation has resulted from the Amanah "Transfer of Power" Scepter.

Neil's empowering transformation continues to manifest through his right hand as the 'golden' essence emanates beyond his middle finger, expanding to both hands and arms. The emitting and empowering energies will become more pronounced as the One and Only Amanah. Neil's "Gold Finger" emanation occurs in relation to the aetheric appearances of President Soekarno when his spirited and wise advice is sought.

Neil has become quite fond of his Gold Finger anomaly and has adjusted to his golden attribute. Neil even selected the Bond 'Gold Finger' song for his phone's ringtone. Although, Neil isn't sure if his Amanah 'Transfer of Power' will manifest to the ultimate 'Midas Touch,' but it brings a 'hidden (finger) hand' meaning to his Cabal foes.

Aborted Attempt to Locate the Sultan's Bunker

While waiting for the seventh spiritual ritual and acquiring the Agra Oil to gift the Elders, in order to become the 'elected' Amanah's Agreement; Neil received the Sultan's Palace Book of Maps with locations to the Indonesian Bunkers. With the Map at hand, Neil and his crew opted to venture into the Jungle to locate the Sultan's Bunker.

Due to unsuspecting obstacles and extreme terrain challenges, the trek through the jungle was aborted and planned for another time with the proper gear and joined by military forces. After returning to the hotel from the Jungle trail, nobody could approach Neil while he was hearing unexplainable Jinn type noises until it subsided the next day.

THE 'MAGIC MAN'S' HOUSE

After a week of rejuvenation, Neil was ready to travel 250 miles from Semarang to Bandung in seeking the Magic Man's metaphysical and spiritual wisdom. Neil was anxious to understand the powers of Soekarno's 'Transfer of Power Scepter' and the 'Magic Power Staff,' as formidable and supernatural means to open the GCA Bunkers.

The only way to find out about how to use the dual Scepters was to travel to see the Magic Man at his house in Bandung. Neil calls up Nelu and tells him to pack his bag and bring his car around. "We are going to Bandung!" They stuffed their bags in Nelu's car and off they all went roving the wild and winding roads.

It was a long drive to reach their destination, but the 'Magic Man' was at the door to greet them as if he "knew" they were coming. The 'Magic Man' is a genuine mystic who is well-known and respected amongst Indonesians. Neil knew of the 'Magic Man's' adept ability of magically transferring money to Elders by simply placing the notes inside a green cloth tube, as well as demonstrating numerous mystical "materializations.'

After friendly salutations, Neil promptly unveiled what the Elders had bestowed on him. The Magic-Man silently meditated on the spiritual and metaphysical aspects of each of Soekarno's Transfer of Power Scepter and the Magic Power Staff and combined.

The Magic-Man conversed with Neil in cautioning him of the potent phases he'll endure in becoming more spiritually empowered. Magic-Man emphasized to Neil as a means to enhance the Scepters' powers and enliven his communications with the late Amanah President Soekarno to receive his Spiritual Wisdom; he would have to routinely rub the scepters with the high frequency of Rose Essential Oil—as Neil continues to do.

With a smile on his face, Magic-Man explained to Neil that the Magical Power Staff was designed to open the boulder-encased, metaphysical doors, which are guarded by formidable Jinns who are entrapped to protect the Bunker sites. In essence, the Magical Power Staff is the key to access the treasure trove of GCA Assets.

The Magic-Man described the Magical Power Staff as a Harry Potter type energetic sword embedded with sparks which will zap-out of the pointed end. He forewarned Neil that if the Staff was pointed at a person, it would cause them harm and even bust metaphysical entities. In performing a trial run, Neil took the Power scepter and tapped it on the floor. Sparks flew out! "Whoa! What was that?" exclaimed Neil.

Curious, Neil asked Yunus if he could test it himself to see that the "stick" actually worked. Yunus thought about Neil's request, but said that the 'Magic Power Staff' was only for opening bunkers and may not be used on people.

So, Neil took the 'Magic Power Staff' in his hand and started tapping it on the floor and watched the sparks fly! Nelu was standing apprehensive back in a corner as the sparks kept dancing off the scepter.

Neil couldn't let a good scare on Nelu pass. So, he pointed the scepter in Nelu's direction and said, "Nelu, Watch this! It's YOUR TURN!"

"Oh NO SIR!" squealed Nelu. Thus, started a hilarious time with Neil chasing poor Nelu around the room, all the time laughing and shouting "It's gonna get you!" with sparks flying this way and that.

While at Magic-Man's house, Neil received word from one of Group K's members that the 'King of the Jinn' had contacted her psychically. The King informed her that he was willing to help Neil on the condition that he'd provide Agra Oil to the Jinn upon opening the Bunker and releasing himself along with thousands of Jinns too.

When Neil shared the King of the Jinn message to Magic-Man, he paused and mediated on the news. After some time passed, Magic-Man announced to Neil and the Crew, that he would climb to a nearby mountain to make astral contact with his spirit guides and the Jinn. He'd ask the Jinn for their consent to open the Bunkers to release them and be granted access its trove of precious metals, gems, and documents.

The following morning, the Magic-Man left for his jungle trek to his spiritual meditation site, saying he should be back the next day. The next day came and went without the return of Magic-Man. Day two passed and by day three, Kawa, the Magic-Man's brother, informed Neil and Crew that he was going to the mountain to find his brother.

Kawa with a couple of his friends eventually found Magic-Man lying on the ground in a semi-comatose condition. The friends were worried that Magic-Man had fallen and began reaching out to revive him, but Kawa held them back as he had seen his brother in this state before. The Magic-Man was astral (out-of-body) traveling and should not be disturbed. Kawa just sat beside his brother and recited special prayers.

Shortly, the Magic-Man awoke, sat up and asked for a drink of water. He was fine after his three-days of astral traveling. Returning home, the Magic-Man explained to Neil and Crew what had transpired while at his spiritual mountain site. He announced that the 'King of the Jinn,' who guards the Bunker, agreed to cracking open the Bunker door slightly to allow for the captive Jinn to be released from the bunker.

Neil, with a metaphysical understanding of his empowerment with the 'Transfer of Power Scepter' and 'Magic Power Staff' agreed to the terms. Neil and Crew realized the importance of their pursuit of the Agra Oil not only for the Elders, but to honor the 'King of the Jinn' condition prior to the Jungle expedition to 'Magic Man's' discovered Bunker.

Securing and Gifting Agra Oil to Indonesian Elders and Jinn

Neil reflected on his meeting with the Sultan in Semarang as he devised a strategic plan. He not only had to successfully achieve all seven Spiritual Rituals before the Sultan would add his signature to the Amanah Agreement; the Sultan also requested Neil to ceremonially give a 'gift' of precious Agra Oil to each of the Elders who would sign the Amanah's Agreement and attend the Seventh Spiritual Ritual ceremony entailing Neil presenting a sacred food offering to honor the high Spiritual Beings.

The "gift" that the Sultan requested is a special and rare aromatic essential oil extracted from the nut of the Agran tree only found in the jungles of East Papua. This perfumed oil called 'Agra Oil' is highly prized by Elders as they use it for special ceremonies. 'Agra Oil' is so rare, that one-liter bottle costs $ 40,000 USD—If one could even find a one-liter bottle since most vials of 'Agra Oil' contain only a small number of ounces. The Sultan's request sent Yunus and Nelu on a "search mission" to see if they could find and then purchase at one-liter bottle of the precious 'Agra Oil.'

The Agra Oil hunt became a more challenging feat for Neil to achieve than the six prior Spiritual Rituals that he had accomplished. The key challenge was most of the Agra Oil Dealers only had limited supply with small vials of the oil and in varying grades, which wasn't acceptable. After more than a week of arduous searching throughout Indonesia, Yunus finally managed to find an Agra Oil Dealer.

The Dealer was a principal importer of Agra Oil from East Papua. He not only had the large bottle of the rare high-grade Agra Oil, but he had a firm non-negotiable cash price. While the hunt for the Agra Oil was accomplished, the full cash purchase was a significant dilemma.

Recollecting, the malfunctioning ATM machine at the Surabaya airport, which ensnared and didn't return Neil's debit card that resulted in no access to his account; Neil's other quandary was Western Union as it is owned and controlled by the Rothschilds. The Rothschilds' had blacklisted Neil's personal and business bank accounts, as well as blocked WU direct money transfers in his name. Neil would circumvent the WU blockage by receiving small amounts through 3rd Parties, but this was an insufficient solution for the $40,000 'Agra Oil' purchase in addition to more travel expenses.

Now, Neil needed to manifest the "cash" by some means as there was no payment plan or credit service with the Dealer's essential oil business. There was to be more trials for Neil to overcome, but it's in his Irish-American DNA and competitive adeptness that Neil is at his peak performance when he is confronted with a multitude of challenges.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Although, Neil didn't reveal as to who-what-when-where-and how, he miraculously overcame his cash flow obstacles to generate the money in order to purchase the 'Agra Oil' and cover the Ceremony, travel and crew expenses. Neil counted out the $40,000 of USD to purchase the liter-bottle of Agra Oil and handed the cash to Nelu and Yunus. They disappeared and reappeared a day later with the precious and rare Agra Oil.

Yunus holding the one-liter bottle of rare Agra Oil with Nelu, Jo and Neil

After receiving instructions from Neil, Yunus departed the hotel with the Agra Oil bottle to purchase thirty small vials in order to divide the liter of Agra Oil into thirty-some vials. Yunus then traveled to meet with and give each of the Elders the rare Agra Oil vial gift from Neil Keenan to honor their participation in his Spiritual Rituals and 'electing' him by signing The Only Amanah Agreement.

Neil fulfilled his promise to the Sultan, as one of many Spiritual requirements and challenging trials that Neil endured. Now, all he needed to do was successfully achieve the Seventh Spiritual Ritual to be 'elected' as The Only Amanah.

On a sidenote: While in Indonesia, Neil was given the opportunity to acquire a glass-cylinder infused with a mix of rare, potent and powerful oils, which his essence was aligned with and energized from the oils' frequencies. As the Amanah, Neil resorted to using his infused-oil glass cylinder and Soekarno's 'Transfer of Power' Scepter with his "Magical Power Staff" while overseeing the GCA assets, resting and recovering from his poisonous time release capsules upon returning home to Bulgaria.

The Semi-Official Amanah's Agreement with 29 Elders Signatures

Yunus anxiously tracked down Neil relaxing at the hotel poolside. Yunus had a roll of pinkish colored paper waving in his hand. "We've got it" he shouted. "Is that what I think it is?" replied Neil. Yunus nodded vigorously. Yunus cleared a spot on the table and ceremoniously un-rolled the document. There it was... The official Agreement 'electing' Neil Francis Keenan as The Only AMANAH... signed, sealed and delivered by 29 Elders in Javanese, Bahasa Indonesia and English!

Almost...The Agreement was still missing the final signature of the principle Elder, Sri Sultan Hamengku Buwono X and that would only be signed succeeding Neil's passage of the final seventh Spiritual Ritual. So Yunus rolled the 'teaser' Amanah Agreement document back up to take to the Palace for the Sultan's signature and framing. Everything appeared in synch before Neil's final stretch of his Spiritual Rituals initiation.

After a few days of relaxing in the sun, it was time to finish the final leg of Neil's Spiritual Rituals. Neil was joined by his family and friends on a short flight to Yogyakarta where he met up with Nelu, Yunus and Thomas. Thomas was the 'witness' replacement for Charles for the final ritual and what transpired thereafter, as Charles returned home.

The Keenan family and crew settled into the Yogyakarta Hyatt Regency. Neil asked Jo to come to his final Spiritual Ritual as it was only fitting that his friend Jo, who had been with him from the beginning, join him in his Amanah ceremony and celebration.

SPIRITUAL FOOD OFFERING RITUAL AT PANTAI CANGKRING

Throughout history, many people of faith have found spiritual energy in certain remote and powerful places on the planet. One such sacred place is Pantai Cangkring, which is at the convergence point of three rivers in Indonesia. International retreatants travel to Pantai Cangkring three rivers points to experience spiritual healing, renewal and enlightenment, as well as practice "the presence of their faithful beliefs."

"The conjoining of the three rivers is considered an inter-dimensional portal and part of the ancient prophetic teachings that show a trinity of unity. Many spiritual leaders say the convergence point of the three rivers makes it one of the most spiritual places on the planet. The practice of spiritual rituals ushers in a new era of universal alignment, a shift into a higher consciousness and the peaceful return to oneness.

Food of Bali Ritual

The Hindu community in Bali believe that food plays an important role in ritual and worship. Food offered to the gods called “Prasada” which in Sanskrit means “mercy,” or grace. Preparing food offerings to the gods is part of meditation of strong reflection.

Lawar A Traditional Food Ritual Dish

Food in Balinese ceremony is often described as a feast for Gods and often described literally as a celebration for the gods and spirits. In the discipline of meditation, they offer food to Gods before enjoying the food served. That means spiritually most Hindus in Bali regard that the food has a value of karma, which must be removed and not be involved while being eaten. The Balinese have strong spiritual beliefs. Food is often used as offerings to the gods and frequently seen in temples and holy places in Bali.

The Sacred Pantai Cangkring Beach was Chosen for the Seventh Spiritual Ritual

The final seventh Spiritual was scheduled for Thursday night on the 18th October 2018 in conjunction with Neil receiving the 29 signed Elders, except for the Sultan, Amanah Agreement—due to delays in getting the Agra Oil gift to all the thirty Elders, the weather and logistics of transporting the Elders to the Pantai Cangkring ritual site.

Near the stroke of mid-night, a dozen cars full of Indonesian Elders and Neil's crew arrived at Pantai Cangkring sandy beach for the final Seventh Spiritual Ritual with the intent of gifting the Gods and Spirits that had tested Neil during his ritual trials.

The gathered Elders presented to Neil and Yunus their own bamboo woven tray with blessed food and flower offerings. The traditional Indonesian offering to the spirit world would be sent out to sea. If accepted by the Spirits, portions of the food offering would appear at three separate river locations along the South Java coast.

Nelu was “live streaming” * the event worldwide via Neil's ‘It's a Keenan Thing’ Facebook page. Thomas was handling the spot light, well almost, as in the live streaming process, he stepped into a sand hole and took a dive for a moment.

It was a dark, first-quarter moon night with Neil and Yunus carefully carrying their food offering to the shore as they waited for Elders to gather at the edge of the wet sand. Yunus instructed Neil to sit next to him and demonstrated how to place the food offering in front of him.

Once Neil was seated and his food offering was properly in place, Yunus began saying prayers. A cresting wave gently rolled-in caressing Neil's food offering and dragging it 10 meters towards the edge of the sea.

Yunus hadn't finished his prayer vigil, so he got up to retrieve Neil's food offering and placed it front of him again. Yunus began his prayer again as another wave came and shrouded Neil's food offering bringing it towards the sea. As a sporting competitor, Neil thought that he was the 'hare' and was wining the spiritual offering race against Yunus.

Out of frustration, Yunus picked up his food offering and moved it next to Neil's offering. As Yunus continued his spiritual prayers, a larger third wave set came rushing in and engulfed both of their food offerings. The Elders were witness to Neil's food offering surpassing Yunus' offering at a great distance as it was immersed under the fourth set of waves and submerged into the sacred three river waters.

The Elders traveled the following day to each of the three river outposts to witness the remaining remnants of Neil's food offering—The Elders confirmed the Spirits received Neil's food offerings and unifying in oneness with the sacred Java sea.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Neil Keenan Is “The One”

August 25, 2018

NEIL KEENAN ACHIEVED ALL SEVEN AMANAH SPIRITUAL RITUALS!

NFK Update: Neil Keenan elected as Amanah Forever Announcement

Neil Keenan has been ‘elected’ as the AMANAH by the Elders of Indonesia!

The Definition of The Amanah:

The Amanah, is the title given to the one who is and has shown his concern, care and love for not only Indonesia, but for all other nations in our efforts to stay alive and relevant. This individual is directly responsible and in charge of the deposits in all the bunkers that were placed there by the Asian Nations who brought large amounts of gifts when President Soekarno was voted the first and only Amanah.

Neil rested on the beach and celebrated with his family, friends and shared his Amanah Spiritual Ritual accomplishment with his supporters and followers.

THE SULTAN-INDONESIAN ELDERS SIGNED AMANAH AGREEMENT

Neil Receiving the Amanah Agreement

A few days later the officially framed AMANAH AGREEMENT was given to Neil by Yunus complete with the Sultan's signature with the twenty-nine Indonesian Elders. The series of images shows the Elders 'elected' Amanah Agreement and Neil holding Soekarno's 'Transfer of Power Scepter.'

Over five years ago during a meeting, the Indonesian Elders shared with Neil that they had been waiting thirty years for 'him' and that they knew that Neil was 'him' then.

Neil responded along the lines of "Well if I didn't know myself, then how could anyone else?"

But the Elders persisted in their claim that Neil was 'The One'—although he had to prove it by undergoing all seven Ceremonial Spiritual Rituals—in which, he was subsequently proclaimed to finally be 'The One' that the Elders had envisioned 30 years ago and spiritually affirmed five years prior. The Elders chose not a 'talker' but a 'doer'. He is, as the Indonesians called him after successfully achieving the seven spiritual rituals, which no one has ever survived from, "THE ONE."

Neil Keenan has been elected per 'The Only Amanah' Agreement—which was unanimously signed by twenty-nine Indonesian Elders with the Sultan being the final signatory—authorizing Neil as Trustee to be held responsible to lead Indonesia by overseeing the Amanah Accounts and all other accounts and estates relating to the Amanah in Indonesia and throughout Asia.

Neil is now the second 'elected' Amanah in over 50 years since President Soekarno. It's not because they didn't want one, they simply hadn't found one that warranted the esteemed and entrusted position. To be elected as 'The Only Amanah,' Neil had to endure a Ceremonial series of seven Spiritual Rituals per the Sultan's directive requiring the all seven rituals to be achieved before he would be officially elected by the elders.

They had a few candidates whom attempted the Ceremonial Spiritual Rituals only to either die or experiencing some physical harm such as going blind or deaf after nearly completing the first spiritual ritual, which most likely scared off many others as, achieving the status of The Amanah was seemingly impossible. News of the failed and the successful attempted spiritual rituals travels quickly in the Indonesian Islands.

Neil did not know any of the above attempts when he agreed to the rituals. He passed all phased seven Spiritual Rituals without incident or harm in a Ceremonial fashion. For some, whom attempted the spiritual rituals, the process was too challenging, yet it was not challenging for Neil. As a further indicator of his position, he has been given the golden stick or "Transfer of Power" Scepter that was once owned by President Soekarno (see the image at the beginning of this article).

This scepter has never been transferred before, the power of this scepter has always remained in one place and the bunker doors have remained relatively silent, which is why the West went about illegally pillaging and mirroring accounts. Neil's holding Soekarno's scepter is the equivalent to the official transfer of power. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity for not only Indonesia, but the world as a whole. The Indonesian Elders chose the right man, they chose a Celtic Conqueror who is twelve moves ahead of everyone else in the field at all times – not just at this time.

Three Day Puppet Shadow Event at Sultan's Palace

In honor of Neil Keenan being the 'elected' Only Amanah by twenty-nine Indonesian Elders and the Sultan, a three-day Shadow Puppet Performance was held at the Sultan's Palace. The Puppet performance recognized Neil's monumental Seven Spiritual Rituals he successfully achieved to become the 'elected' Only Amanah, which will be written in Indonesia's history books.

To date, this monumental effort has been possible financially only by way of the money remaining in Neil Keenan's pockets (after much Cabal thievery) and by way of his Group K team and limited donations. He is The Only Amanah!

The 'elected' Amanah Agreement gives Neil full authority over the dispersion of the assets. Because of Neil's Amanah's authority, Indonesia now has the ONE who will protect and distribute the Global Collateral Accounts assets to transform Indonesia to the Jewel of Asia. The Amanah's position is similar to that of being the "CEO" of all the precious assets that have been placed in secretive bunkers and guarded by Elders for safekeeping for generations before and during World War II.

We're not just talking about billions to trillions; We're talking about funding in amounts so vast that most would have extreme difficulty in comprehending the size of the figures of Quadrillions to Quintillions. While we can try to get our heads around funding in numbers, which we can barely imagine, Neil restates that once the process commences, we will continue to see that things will be just fine.

Now that Neil Keenan has been elected and authorized as Amanah, he will be positioned on the world stage with his Group K team—a team that will be merged with a 'Dream Team' and will become exponentially larger to implode the Cabal and provide Foundational funding for humanity and planetary projects.

At this time, Neil finds himself aligned with other anti-Cabal leaders such as Donald Trump and Vladimir Putin who have and are removing the Cabal and its Cartel tentacles. Neither of these great leaders are alone, the planet is changing and it is time to rid it of the Cabal that has controlled it for far more than 100 years. It is time to move on to real leaders who have leadership and diplomatic nous that will keep us moving forward without having to look in the rearview mirror to see who is catching up with us.

Neil Keenan Encounters with the Dark-Shadow-Spirit Jinns

On a 2014 trip to Indonesia, when Neil became the first westerner to be invited into a GCA Bunker, Neil was a guest of the Prince—who is associated with the Sultan to oversee the GCA Bunkers warehouse—to stay at a special hotel room. After his first night stay, Neil was taking a shower when he was hit extremely hard on his upper back and neck with such a violent force it caused him to fall in the shower and hit his head.

In his efforts to recover from the painful hit in his neck and his head being hurt from the fall; Neil realized that since he was alone in the room, he must have been attacked in the shower by some Dark-Shadow-Djinn. Therefore, he did his “Keenan Thing” and bellowed out, ‘I do not consent numerous times. He said prayers, protection mantras and gave a blood of Christ declaration stand-off with the Shadow Jinn.’

When the Prince arrived in the morning to pick Neil up in his hotel room, Neil shared with him his Dark-Evil-Entity attack and his sustained head and neck injuries. The Prince feeling horrible for arranging Neil's stay in the hotel room, urged Neil to move to another hotel as he was endangered to extend his stay in the room with the entity.

Neil, being the fearless Celtic Conqueror, insisted that since he's paid for the room he's not going to move out. Neil proclaimed to the Dark-Jinn in his unique 'Keenan' way, "I'm not leaving. I paid for the room. You must exist the room immediately and not return."

After his stand-off with the evil entity, Neil didn't experience another encounter while staying in the room. Although, Neil is still suffering from his shower attack injuries, he's becoming adept at being a 'Jinn Buster,' which will come in handy for future life-threatening Entities in his Evil vs. Good Spiritual battles.

The Amanah Agreement Aftermath: A Dark-Shadow-Jinn Bloody Attack

During the aftermath of Neil announcing his being 'elected' as Amanah, Neil was confronted by an unexpected ripping and bloody attack by a Dark-Shadow-Jinn. Shortly after receiving his Amanah's Agreement at the Hotel Poolside and returning to his room to prepare for their upcoming Jungle expedition to the Magic-Man's discovered Bunker, Neil experienced another Dark-Evil-Entity attack.

During the throes of being attacked, the Jinn clawed and ripped Neil's favorite Escape to Paradise T-Shirt in the left shoulder area. Upon the Keenan crew arriving in his room, Nelu saw his T-Shirt and exclaimed, "Neil you are bleeding! Look at your shoulder!"

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Upon closely examining Neil's bleeding shoulder, Nelu and the Magic-Man saw that there were sharp claw marks, which had sliced through his shirt and deeply penetrated his skin—drawing blood!

The Magic-Man had Neil remove his Escape to Paradise T-shirt, while taking him to the bathroom to clean his wounds. After disinfecting the deep wound and a few prayers, the bleeding stopped and showed intriguing clawing marks, which healed in a few days.

What was more revealing to Neil, Magic-Man and the Keenan Crew was the faces of Jinn formed on the blood- stained Escape to Paradise T-shirt...at least Neil survived and wasn't Lost in Paradise from the Dark-Shadow-Jinn attack.

With the blood stains and clawing-rips formations, what can be detected
From different angles are three distinct Jinn faces!

[It's significant to note, that Neil wore his 'Escape to Paradise' T-Shirt several times during his Spiritual Rituals and receiving the Amanah's Agreement].

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

The Magic-Man informed Neil that he had offended the Jinn with his veiled threat about using his 'Magic Power Staff' to open the Bunkers and will get them. As an authoritative lesson, the Jinn gave Neil a Dark-Shadow forewarning to underscore a strong message that the Jinn are REAL and their powers are to be respected and not to be taunted.

Neil seriously listened and realized the significance of the Magic-Man's conveyance of the Jinn's ominous forewarning with their metaphysical powerful and dangerous magic.

Neil soulfully apologized to the King of Jinn and all the Jinn for his veiled threat offense. Neil admitted to the Jinn that he was wrong in doing his Keenan kidding antics. He promised to honor his word to the King of the Jinn and fulfill his conditional agreement to set all the Jinn's free from the Magic-Man's discovered Bunker.

The Magic-Man assured Neil that the Jinn forgave him and were happy again. But Nelu was more scared than before. Neil sensed this and told Nelu, "You better watch out as you may be next! And they can hurt you really bad! They are going to get you in the jungle." Nelu coward from Neil and opted to sit next to Magic-Man.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE: AMANAH KEENAN'S BUNKER EXPEDITIONS

August 22, 2018

Magic-Man's Bunker with Amanah's Power Scepters Expedition

Once the Magic-Man discovered the Bunker and Guardian Gravesite, he frequented the site to Astral Travel to connect with the King of the Jinn and Jinn. The King of the Jinn also communicated with a spiritual psychic who confirmed to Neil that the King had agreed to open the Bunker door on the condition he uses both of the 'Transfer of Power' Scepter and 'Magic Power Staff.'

Now that he had been cautioned by Magic-Man and equipped with Soekarno's 'Transfer of Power' Scepter and Magic Power Staff, Neil has not only become empowered, but wiser in the ways of the Jinn, especially the King of the Jinn. Amanah Keenan was psyched and geared up for his upcoming Jungle adventure to the Magic-Man's discovered Bunker with the intent to present the Agra Oil to the King of the Jinn and release the Jinn who had been entrapped as guardians of the Bunker.

Neil and his crew's treacherous trail trek to the Magic-Man's Bunker had many adventurous encounters with numerous spiritual jungle creatures and Jinn—which rivaled any 'Indiana Jones' 'Harry Potter' and 'Jungle Book' movie scenes.

The Fateful Jungle Expedition to Magic-Man's Bunker

The next morning when Keenan and the Crew got together to plan the Jungle Bunker expedition, Neil was already into scaring Nelu, who had just bought a new pair of army boots, which were already hurting his feet.

Nelu countered back, "Aren't you afraid of wild animals and the Jinns?" "Nope", said Neil, "I have my sticks and I just have to point it at them and even the Jinn will run away. You don't have worry Nelu as I will protect you. Think about that."

The inspired and determined Keenan crew gathered at the trail head for their expedition to the Magic-Man's discovered Bunker with a three-pronged purpose: First, to test both scepters powers to open the Bunker's door; Second, to release the King of the Jinn and its entrapped Jinn Guardians; and third, to enter the Bunker to affirm the GCA assets.

The lower part of the trail to the Magic-Man's Bunker was a "walk in the park" for the Keenan Crew with a wide trail, gentle slope and exquisite Jungle views and sounds.

At the higher elevation, the trail became steeper with treacherous rock ledges whereby the Keenan Crew had to walk one foot at a time and not look down. When Neil looked forward along the trail, he spotted two of Magic-Man's snake friends.

The first was a 14-foot White Cobra that appeared hanging from a tree branch beside the trail. The Cobra reared its body to 6-feet tall, flared its cowl and cautiously stared at Neil and Magic-Man. This was an auspicious welcome, a greeting to friends, but a spiritual warning to other trespassers. After salutations, this beautiful snake lowered its body and stayed guard over the trail until all had safely passed by.

But the fun wasn't over yet. A little further along the trail, the Keenan Crew saw a white Python perched on a rock ledge and then slithering into a giant hollowed out log as they approached. The huge head of the White Python struck-out from the hollowed log to greet and possibly eat them. The head of this monster Python was more than a foot in diameter. Big enough to swallow a man! Nelu freaked out and froze.

Again, after salutations and requested permission to pass, the White Python allowed them all to walk by as it coiled back into the log. Although, Nelu was petrified and primed to run, the Magic-Man guided him by the hand. Nelu cautiously tippy-toed past the log with his eyes fixed on the possibility of the Python jumping out of the log like a ferocious Jack-In-The Box.

The trail became steeper and more perilous, as it gradually became narrower and narrower until the trail came to a fork where Magic-Man turned-off onto what Neil described as a small bicycle track. By now, Nelu was sweating and starting to lag behind, as his new army boots were causing blisters and the jungle bush swishing by both shoulders was creeping him out— particularly since rustling bushes and jungle sounds heightened his adrenalin level.

The Jungle creatures and bush was no place for a Kampong boy. Neil, of course, poured more fear on the fire saying things like, "Nelu, did you hear that!? I think that big snake is following you. If you get too far behind, we may never see you again!"

The trail got steeper and steeper, and the huffing and puffing of the Keenan Crew got louder. Neil obviously hadn't been in training for quite some time, and was in no way a challenge to Magic-Man and Kawa as they dashed up the trail. Thankfully, Nelu was dragging up from the rear, so rest breaks became more frequent for the Crew, as they climbed higher while waiting for Nelu to catch up.

The trail opened up as they climbed into old growth and distinct rock steps showed the way. Some sections of the stair steps were abnormally high at around three feet tall.

Neil struggled and swore that Giants built this Stairway to Heaven. And as he huffed along a precipitous cliff face, clinging to roots and struggling with giant steps, he had serious thoughts that this really may be his final climb to meet his Maker.

One slip and it would be a 300-foot drop into Hell. Neil moved slowly with a foot-in-front-of-a-foot as he tightly gripped limbs and roots to prevent a deadly slip and fall.

Eventually, he and even Nelu made it off the cliff and up the narrow trail leading to a clearing. This was an unusual clearing as on one side was a white tiled grave of some ancient being and on the other was a rock slide.

While climbing, the Keenan Crew heard the growling of Sumatran tigers from afar as they peered at them over the cliffs and moving through the underbrush. The other strange thing was that there were monkeys everywhere in the trees and in the ground except for one friendly monkey who didn't seem afraid of the Keenan Crew.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Nelu anxiously kept looking wide-eyed at all the monkeys swinging in trees and shaking the bushes that surrounded a clearing along the, as he almost tripped over a Gila Monster lurking at the clearing near the Bunker.

When Neil and the crew finally arrived at the Bunker, they were greeted by a mass of chattering monkeys in the trees and bushes that surrounded the Bunker.

As the Magic Man began praying and preparing the site for Neil to tap the Magical Power Staff to open the Bunker, the jungle Monkeys began gathering around Neil and his Crew to greet and accept their presence.

The Magic-Man explained to Neil, via Nelu's translation, as to the unusual gathering of Monkeys surrounding the Bunker and the Guardians gravesite. Most likely, the mass of Monkeys enigmatic appearances were in anticipation to witness the release of the Jinn.

NFK Update: Monkeys

Magic-Man waved to Neil to come over to a crevice area where he explained that the bunker was deep inside the mountain behind the boulders that were blocking the Bunker entrance. Magic-Man began clearing around the crevice site and spiritually preparing the Bunker entrance to mystically receive Neil's tapping of the 'Magic Power Staff' to open the Bunker.

Magic-Man demonstrated to Neil how to tap a specific big boulder only three times in his right hand with the Magical Power Staff and then back away. Neil also needed to hold the Amanah's 'Transfer of Power' Scepter in his left hand with the Amanah's Scepter's head bowing down to honor of the entrapped and guarded Jinn.

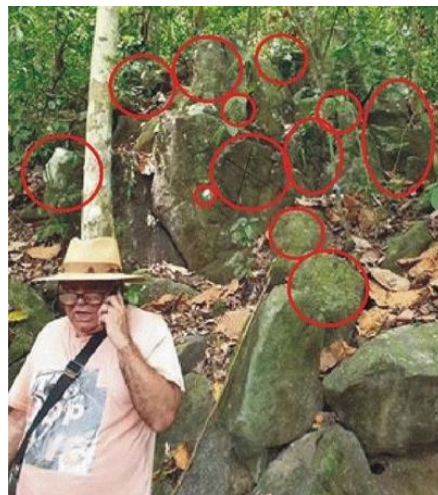

Neil proceeded in tapping the big boulder three times and stepped away. Within moments, the ground beneath their feet began shaking and boulders surrounding the Bunker entrance started tumbling down the hill. Everyone jumped far back from the crevice area, except for Nelu as he ran to the Guardian's gravesite a distance away! As the shaking continued and more boulders began falling from the cliff above, Neil and the rest of the crew joined Nelu at the Guardians gravesite for safety from of the earth-shattering area and to meditate and pray.

When the earth shaking and boulder tumbling subsided, the entire Bunker and Gravesite areas the daylight gradually became dimmer. Neil returned to the Bunker crevice site to watch for spiritual signs on the boulder that the Magic-Man had him tap three times with his 'Magic Power Staff.' He also began scanning the surrounding rocks where faces began to metaphysically appear.

Metaphysical faces on the boulders and rocks surrounding Bunker began to emerge after the earth shaking and boulders falling from the cliff had ended. The faces on the boulders and rocks were all watching and protecting the outside of the Bunker!

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

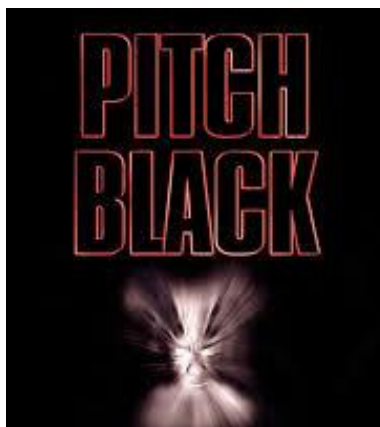

Moments had passed by when Neil started sensing a strange and dominating energy emitting out of the crevice and observed the energy swirling and manifesting before his eyes. At first, the shadowy-silhouette vessel was small in size, but it enlarged into a mighty expanding form to behold the King of the Jinn.

The King appeared before Amanah Keenan and briefly paused to royally acknowledge the Amanah holding his 'Transfer of Power' Scepter before he turned toward the Bunker's cliff. The King of the Jinn began bounding up the massive boulders, as its inter-dimensional Jinn vessel grew taller and expanded larger with its effortless leaps to the top of the mountain with increasing giant strides.

By the time the King reached to the top of the mountain, it had inter-dimensionally expanded in size to approximately 50 feet tall. At the mountains peak, the King of the Jinn suddenly stopped and turned around while bracing his hands on its hips. The King looked down, raised his hand and gratefully waved towards Neil in a farewell gesture.

Neil smiled in bewilderment at the King of the Jinn and waved back. The King then blended in to the surroundings as it gleefully peered back at Neil and then vanished. Neil called out to Nelu. "Did you see that?!" "YYYYyyyyeeesss Ssssiirrrr!" Nelu replied in shock and awe. Suddenly, the Bunker area became mysteriously PITCH BLACK!!!

This was early afternoon on a clear day with very few clouds in the sky. The whole surrounding area was dark as midnight on a moonless night...deep in the jungle.

“You there Nelu?” “Yesss sir” was the whispered answer. “Did you hear that? Something just growled. You still with us Nelu?” “Yyyyyeeesss Sssssiirrr.”

There seemed to be no telling how long the darkness lasted as everything stood breathlessly still as if they were all in a blackened, time-lapse vortex. After a prolonged silent period, the darkness slowly gave way to light...much to Neil and Nelu's relief.

As the dark Bunker scene gradually changed back to daylight, Neil and his Crew viewed two more Jinn energies emerge from the boulder crevice. As the Jinns metaphysical energies manifested, their inter-dimensional vessels grew and expanded incredibly fast. Each Jinn took giant leaps on the massive boulders as they reached the peak of the mountain to join up with the King of the Jinn and then faded away...as more Jinns entrapped in the Bunker begin to materialize for their great escape.

Once the darkness subsided and the daylight became brighter, the curious crew cautiously inspected the Bunker site to detect any metaphysical damage or opening that Neil with his 'Magical Power Staff' may have caused and besides the Keenan Crew's presence along with the earth shaking and the boulders tumbling.

Magic-Man was the first to peer between the boulders crevice and confirmed that the Bunker entrance door had been cracked open. Neil then poked his nose in between the gaps and affirmed that not only the Bunker door was ajar, but he also viewed a smooth, clean hallway white-tiled-floor past the entrance doorway.

Then it was Nelu's turn to look inside. Nelu warily peaked into the crevice and startlingly saw two red eyes popping out of the dark...glaring right at him!

Nelu screamed and stumbled backwards as fast as he could! “What did you see?” asked Neil as Nelu stumbled back. “Aaaaaaah!” was all Nelu could utter.

Once Nelu was able to shockingly exclaim, “Red Jinn Eyes,” the curious Keenan Crew turned around towards the boulders crevice area only to discover another mysterious manifestation. What metaphysically appeared on the rock ledge in front of the crevice was an offering of three peeled, hard-boiled eggs placed on a large brown-dried leaf!

No one knew where the eggs came from, but Neil gratefully thanked the Jinns for their egg gift offering. While Neil and the crew were wondering what they should do with the eggs, the ‘Friendly Monkey’ came over and grabbed one of the eggs and stuffed it into his mouth as he hopped over to a rock to enjoy devouring it.

After gobbling the appetizing first egg, the ‘Friendly Monkey,’ he leapt back to the rock ledge and stuffed the remaining two eggs into his bulging cheeks as he jumped back to his rock perch to finish his feast.

This fearless behavior was quite unexpected from a wild jungle animal, but Neil and the Crew were amused at the boldness of this monkey. The ‘Friendly Monkey’ then meandered over to Neil’s water bottle, unscrewed the cap and began chugging down the water much to the amazement of the entire Keenan Crew.

The ‘Friendly Monkey’s’ assertiveness was not normal behavior for a wild Jungle monkey. The clamber of noise from his fellow monkeys in the trees and bush, indicated to the crew that the ‘Friendly Monkey’ was a macho bold move, which demonstrated his fearless leadership.

Notice the stones behind the monkey. The middle stone is the Talking Stone and on its right is a reptilian adviser and on the left is another whispering in his ear. One may sit on the stone chair and place their hands on the Talking Stone and ask what to know. An Elder and other adepts may enjoy a session of ancient wisdom.

Mission Accomplished: Thousands of Jinns have been released from the Bunker

With the metaphysical and spiritual release of the Jinns, Neil and his Crew reached a consensus that their Bunker mission to release the King of the Jinn and all the entrapped Jinns was achieved. The Keenan Crew opted not to chance attempting to access the Bunker due to the danger of the precarious boulders. They all determined it was time to depart and return again.

Neil and the Magic-Man delayed their departure to express their gratitude to all the Spirits for participating and assuring they would return to the Bunker someday. Neil wished the Jinns well and jokingly ask them to assist him in trekking down the trail. The Jinns returned the favor by safeguarding Neil down the trail to his hotel, as well as continue to 'be there' for Neil as his inter-dimensional spiritual Jinn protectors.

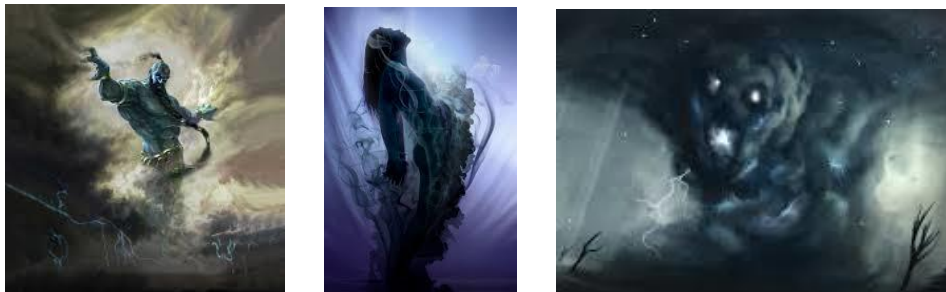

It was a slow and cautious trek back down the mountain, but going down was less physically taxing than the steep climb up to the Bunker. Nelu was more focused on his blistering feet than what was rustling in the bushes, but he did manage to sprint past the python in the log on his own accord.

All returned safely to the hotel with the incentive to have a soaking bath and a hearty dinner. Upon the crew's arrival at the hotel, the staff raised their eyebrows as the disheveled and dirty trekkers staggered in, with questioning looks as to "Where have all of you been?"

The following day, Magic-Man penned a tallying note to account for the release of King of the Jinn and all of the Jinn to verify the success the mission. Per the Magic-Man's spiritual affirmation, Neil had released five major Jinn families and over 40,000 Jinn whom were held captive under an occult spell as protectors of the Bunker. The King and the thousands of Jinn were eternally gratified and obliged to Amanah Neil Keenan.

In fact, Neil had a conversation several months later with an independent psychic, who channeled the King of the Five Major Jinn Families. She confirmed to Neil that he had freed the King of the Jinn and the thousands of members of the five Jinn Families from the Bunker. Via the Psychic, the King of the Jinn avowed to Neil that all the freed Jinns were existing as inter-dimensional, spiritual beings. The King channeled that he and the thousands of Jinn were eternally grateful to Neil and promised all the Jinn would spiritually be looking after him in his journey through life and in the hereafter.

Although, Neil wasn't specific enough in his initial request to the King of the Jinn to open the Bunker door and remiss in asking to enter and remove the Bunker assets. Neil was successful releasing the King and thousands of Jinn from the Bunker, but was deterred to access inside the Bunker due to the dangerous boulders and rocks falling. Upon his next return, Neil intends to have the Indonesian Military remove the dangerous boulders and precarious rocks surrounding the Magic-Man's Bunker in order access, audit and remove the assets, as well as over 300 secretive Bunkers in Indonesia.

"Please do not expect me to ever again climb a mountain! I wouldn't have even done it at 18, but, as you know, I've already done it. To be honest, I did it for all of us. I had to get up there and verify for myself what was real or not. What I found were profound mystical experiences, as well as, confirmation that the bunkers are real. In addition, it became clear that we definitely need large, heavy duty equipment to open and work within them." Neil Keenan

AMANAH KEENAN FULFILLS THIRD OBJECTIVE: WB AND IMF

October 8-14, 2018

The Bunker Jungle expedition was a 'Mission Impossible' adventure, which provided spiritual proof that both the Scepter and Staff performed as anticipated and empowered Neil too. Although, there would be more metaphysical adventures and Cabal challenges to come. To prepare for next venture, the dauntless Keenan Crew piled into Nelu's repaired car for the winding drive back to Bandung to return Magic-Man and Kawa to their homes. Neil and Nelu would then travel on to Yogyakarta to rejuvenate.

Over a month had passed since Keenan achieved his Seven Spiritual Rituals and received the Amanah's Agreement, as well as fulfilled the Bunker and Jinn release expedition. Now, Neil had to realize his third objective of the 2018 Indonesian trip—The World Bank and International Monetary Fund Annual event in Bali.

Amanah Keenan had made advanced room reservations for he and his entourage at the exclusive Nusa Dua Hotel, where he usually stays while in Bali. They took a taxi to the hotel only to be stopped by the security police and not allowed to enter the hotel!

Neil immediately called the hotel's reception desk and was told that the hotel was on a "security lockdown" due to the World Bank \(WB\) and International Monetary Fund \(IMF\) World Economic Conference being held at the hotel. Surprisingly, Neil was also informed that the hotel was fully booked and there were no more rooms, although the hotel had reserved two suites as requested.

Due to Neil's persistence, the reception desk realized its reservation error and apologized, Neil was informed that he would be promptly picked up by the hotel van at a specific location. After a half an hour, the hotel van arrived to bring Neil and his crew with all their luggage straight past the security police to their two reserved suites.

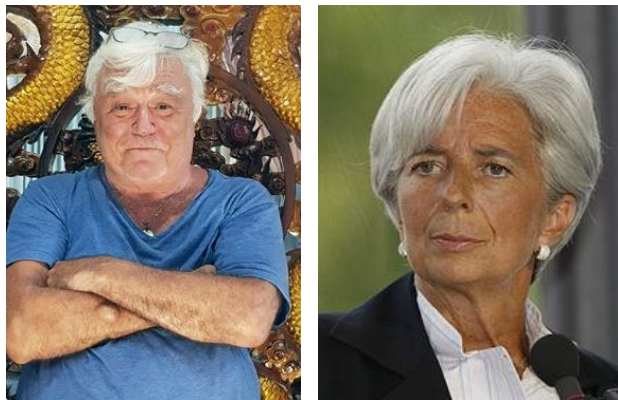

Annual Meetings 2018: World Bank Group Event

Boards of Governors of the World Bank Group and International Monetary Fund (IMF) hold Annual Meetings to discuss a range of issues related to poverty reduction, international economic development and finance. This year's events will take place in Nusa Dua, Bali, Indonesia, October 8-14, 2018.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

It was an ideal opportunity for Neil to perform his renowned 'stir the shit' tactics during his brief stay while at the hotel hosting the WB and IMF conference. Amanah Keenan chose to meander and mingle amongst the corrupt World Banking Elites. The key conference 'shock and awe' chatter was 'Neil Keenan is here!' The awareness of Keenan's presence spread like wild fire throughout the IMF and WB attendees as they kept their social gathering distances far from the newly 'elected' Amanah Keenan.

The following morning, while having breakfast at the Executive Lounge, Neil was seated at his reserved veranda corner table when the Managing Director of the IMF, Christine Lagarde was seated at a table opposite Neil's table and faced him directly. One could easily decipher by her panicked facial expression and twitchy body language what she was thinking when she looked up and saw Neil wiggling his fingers at her in a mocking wave: "SHIT! How in the Hell did HE GET IN HERE!?"

Lagarde knew of Neil from her inner international-financial circles and close encounters so, the synchronistic table seating was foretold destiny of the Cabal Banker meeting her 'Amanah Maker.' Needless to say, Lagarde continuously glanced nervously over at Neil while trying to swallow her breakfast without choking. Neil was in his glory in glaring and glancing blows right back at her.

Even though the word was out amongst the Cabal circles from Neil's beach announcement that he had become 'the-elected-Amanah,' the big global buzz was Neil has been sighted on the hotel premises scouting the WB and IMF Cabal conference attendees. Amanah Keenan's ominous presence created a circumspect gathering both socially and secretly—ultimately wreaking havoc on the WB and IMF Banksters plans to mirror 'Depositors' accounts and pillage the Indonesian GCA Bunkers under the guise of the Bali WB and IMF World Economic Conference.

Neil had continuous belly laughs during his stay at the Bali hotel while watching the WB and IMF Banksters scurry like cock roaches at the sight of him. The Cabal Banksters had no clue as to what he was up to and he wasn't about to tell them. Let the Cabal 'sweat their pending demise' in paradise as Neil relished his revitalizing rest and larks.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

As a result of Keenan's portentous presence at the WB and IMF conference as the 'elected' Amanah of the Dragon Family Global Accounts, there were NO Cabal Banksters' deals made to mirror of the 'Depositors' accounts, nor pirating of the Indonesian GCA Bunkers during and shortly after the WB and IMF Conference.

To top off his glancing breakfast exchange with Lagarde—at the end of the WB and IMF Conference when attendees were departing—Keenan was bold enough to escort Lagarde to her car and carried on a very private and poignant conversation. Lagarde knew the IMF was doomed with Amanah Keenan securing the GCA Bunkers and Accounts.

Neil's looming Bali Hotel encounter confirmed her IMF exist transition to the EU Central Bank: LaGarde resigned as Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund and became the President of the European Union Central Bank.

AMANAH KEENAN'S 'HOUSE-CLEANING PLAN PLAYBOOK

November, 2018

Since the seven Amanah's Spiritual Ritual ceremonies had been successfully completed, Soekarno's Power of Transfer and the Magical Power Scepters were gifted and Neil received the official Elder's Agreement as the 'elected' Amanah; Neil found himself reflecting upon his privy meeting with the Sri Sultan Hamengku Buwono X, the Sultan and Honorable Governor of Yogyakarta, Indonesia and the Principle Elder, as well as the final signatory of the official 'elected' Amanah Agreement.

The Sultan briefed Neil on many things related to becoming the Amanah, but what resonated with Neil the most was that he "needed to clean his house." Neil has great respect for the Sultan and considers him to be a very wise and spiritual man thus, he took his forewarning very seriously. Neil knew that as Amanah if he didn't deal with 'cleaning his wheel house,' the result would be catastrophic for humanity and our planet.

The Sultan's affirmed Neil's suspicion that there were most likely operatives with hidden agendas who are embedded in and associated with Group K with intentions to deceive, degrade and destroy Neil's Amanah Agreement and GCA mandate. It was time for the Amanah to strategize and implement his 'House Cleaning' Plan

Having survived numerous assassination attempts, Neil has learned to mistrust everyone, even trusted people and associates close to him. Suspecting Group K's possible leakers, spies, deceivers and pending GCA Bunker pirates; Neil devised a tactical plan on how to entrap, expose and justly deal with devious betrayers.

Knowing that Nelu was in a key position to 'play-out' his plan, he confided his scenario to him and his acting role as the designated scapegoat! Being Neil's go-to-man in Indonesia, he suspected that the selected people working with Nelu to fulfill his Bunker mission. Neil shared his suspicion with Nelu of the betrayer's scheme to bring him harm as Amanah and steal the Palace's Book of Maps to pirate the GCA Bunkers assets.

[The Sultan granted both Yunus and Nelu the Palace's Book of Maps to the Bunkers to share with Neil in his pursuit to discover and secure the secretive Bunkers. The Book of Maps that was loaned to Neil suspiciously disappeared after the seven rituals and the trek to the Bunker to release the Jinn. Although, Nelu assured Neil that Yunus returned the Book of Maps to the Palace, Neil intends to confirm when he returns to Indonesia.]

Neil is well aware that the Cabal has operative capabilities to bribe, provoke and deceive Indonesians into believing that the GCA assets—which are secretly hidden in the Bunkers—belong to Indonesia and Non-Aligned Members (NAM), as a means to deceptively convince targeted individuals that the assets don't belong to Keenan, an Irish-American foreigner parading as the Amanah.

Although, the truth is Amanah Keenan is the Trustee of the Dragon Family 'Depositors' Global Accounts and 'Owners' of Bunker assets accumulated from eons of trading precious metals and gems, as well as global currencies. Neil also shared with Nelu that he suspects some Group-K team members along with other associates to be connected with Cabal operatives that are jointly plotting to circumvent his Amanah's GCA Trustee authority for their attempted Coup.

Neil's diabolical plan was to stage an irate parting of ways with enough witnesses to watch Nelu arguing with Neil and rowdily refusing to organize Neil's next Bunker trek. Nelu's 'scapegoat' script was to viciously stomp out and declare "balek kampung" (go home)—leaving Neil and his Crew stranded in Semarang. Nelu agreed to his scripted role to convincingly refuse to work anymore and abruptly depart to convey the deception that Neil had no other option, but to return to Bulgaria and figure out what to do next.

Neil and Nelu's Scapegoat Plan

Nelu trusted Neil and his plan so, he rehearsed his scapegoat role for the sake of the Amanah and Group K's mission, as he was becoming aware that some people working with him were acting suspicious and making comments like "Macam mana orang putih boleh jadi Amanah kami?" (How can a white man become our Amanah?).

Neil is adept at sniffing out and foiling betrayers' ploys and plots since accepting the position of POA for the Dragon Family in 2008. This past decade, Neil has come close to setting the financial world free by opening of the first GCA bunker, but has been barred by the Cabal in achieving his mission. Neil has been continuously confronted by a multitude of Cabal foes with their wily ways to perpetually deter Neil by planting 'land mines' to prevent his opening the GCA Bunkers.

So, Neil wasn't going to tolerate a small band of Indonesian 'Robin Hoods' and Group K deceivers to deter him in fulfilling his GCA mission. He anticipated their 'stupid' moves and outsmarted the band of thieves and set out laying booby traps to ensnare them.

With Nelu well versed in his 'scapegoat' role, it was the ideal time to put his diabolical plan into action. As Neil bid his family and friends farewell as they boarded a jet to return home in Bulgaria, he strategically seeded and implemented his tactical ploy.

By now, Nelu was being called the 'Commander' by the small sub-contractor Bunker crew who were totally financed by Neil. Before Nelu exited stage left, Neil gave him a masterful tongue lashing, denouncing him in front of Yunus and all the Bunker crew.

Neil authoritatively proclaimed 'I'm the only one in-charge and the only one making decisions. No one can enter the bunker without me using the scepters... No one!' It was a great reality show script of 'Who's the Boss' and 'You're Fired.'

With the stage set, Nelu and Yunus took off for a few days to set up an operational base in Semarang, as the Bunker was easier to access rather than traveling the dangerous winding road through the mountains around Jogjakarta. Nelu had performed his first act by having duped Yunus and a small crew to start clearing a path to the first bunker.

Nelu then returned to Yogyakarta to pick-up Neil and Thomas. They loaded up his SUV for a surprising and terrifying drive to Semarang. The treacherous road from Yogyakarta to Semarang must have been designed by a rollercoaster engineer with having to steer clear of steep ravines and dart jungle over growth on both sides, as well as dodging heavy truck traffic and cars daring to pass. Nelu became a 'Demolition Derby' driver.

Relieved to arrive in Semarang alive, Nelu deposited Neil and Thomas at the Resort Balemong. The unique resort was comprised a mix of traditional and modern chalets, which were surrounded by a compound of meandering paths of flora and fauna. Neil even envisioned purchasing the hotel as one of the Amanah's Offices for the region. As of now, it was a calming and regenerating venue after the white-knuckle trip.

Neil's Arrival in Semarang: The Act II entrapment plan is fully activated.

With everyone checked in, it was now time to implement the next phase of the Plan. After the sun rose, Neil began looking for Nelu. He knocked on Nelu's room door—no answer. Neil then goes to the reception desk and asked for someone to open Nelu's door. Again, no Nelu and his bed had not been slept in although, Neil had paid for the room. Drama begins to build.

Neil then asked Thomas to call Nelu to find out where he was. Nelu replied that he was at the bunker site giving breakfast to the workers, which Neil had paid with his money, and that he would return to the resort in two hours. More than three hours had passed and still no Nelu thus, Thomas calls Nelu again. This time, Nelu says that he has to pick up his wife who was out shopping. Neil blows a major gasket as he hadn't been giving Nelu money to just do as he pleased!

Nelu received another tongue lashing from Neil. Neil shouted over the phone and accused Nelu for not adhering to his orders and mishandling the Bunker base operation. At about six in the evening, Nelu finally shows up with a disgruntled look. Nelu dumps Neil's camera and tripod on a table together with a few other of Neil's belongings that had been in his car, and without uttering a word, gets in his car and drives off. Thomas not being privy to the 'scapegoat' plan, was shocked as Neil carried on grumbling.

Meanwhile, Nelu went to the site and told everyone that the Bunker work contract was off because he terminated his business relationship with Mr. Keenan and drove off with his wife. As the 'Commander,' Nelu performed a convincing 'take this job and shove it' role with angry antics in front of Yunus and his working group—curtains closed.

As Neil's scripted 'scapegoat,' the contracted working group became furious with Nelu, as he was the key conduit for them to receive Neil's money. Now, with Nelu quitting in disgust, Neil's cash payments stopped flowing to them. The retaliatory group dispersed from the site and then re-grouped to galvanize their Bunker looting ploy— they're greedy, pirating intentions were exposed and ensnared by the Amanah.

Nelu's staged parting-of-the-ways scene, didn't leave Neil and Thomas stranded without a driver. Neil had pre-planned his next move to go to his old stomping ground in Jakarta for a bit of fun and celebration. Neil had called his friend Jo who was able to rent a SUV and bring a friend to co-drive for the night drive from Jakarta to Semarang and then back to Jakarta. Fortunately, they're all night drive had no perilous road incidents. By early morning they arrived safely and tired at the Fraser Residency.

After a few days of feasting and shopping celebrations, Neil decided to add an encore act to his plan. He tactically planned to return to Sukabumi and stay at the Grand Inna Beach Resort for a couple of days. Neil calls Jo and asks him again to rent a car to pack their travel items for another midnight road trip.

After another harrowing road trip, the trio of Neil, Jo and Thomas arrived at their resort destination—oblivious that they would be doing the trip again, but in reverse in just a few nights time. The reason Neil wanted to come to the Grand Inna was not for a holiday, but to set another trap and blocking maneuver as part of the plan.

The Staged Trek to the Bunker Bluff

On Sunday, November 11, 2018, Neil planned to trek to the Jungle to the second bunker, which the revered Magic-Man” presided over. Neil had made plans to meet his team there to check on the progress in clearing that site. Neil wanted to record a video for his Neil Keenan Update website to let people know that the area was already secured and the bunker assets were being removed—the video was a staged bluff.

Neil, Thomas and Jo grabbed the camera gear and drove to the trailhead. Jo was a bit nervous about the hike as he had already heard the stories about white cobras, giant pythons, tigers and wild monkeys—he really didn’t like wandering through the jungle. Thus, just before sighting “the big snake on the log,” Jo suggested that “this would-be a good place to do the shoot.” Actually, Jo really didn’t want to go much further.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

When Neil saw the return of the White Python on the hollow log where he was standing, he knew it was another spiritual, positive and protective sign.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | The End of The Line

The video was shot in a single take with Neil performing center stage, creating a convincing story about the progress being made in clearing the bunker with the help of the Indonesian Military and more tall tales.

The video ended with a shot of a lone monkey sitting on a rock observing the trio. Fortunately, it started to rain, which allowed Jo the excuse that he needed to pack-up and quickly retreat back down the trail. Jo took the lead on the walk back to the car.

Soon Jo noticed a sweet aroma and he called out, “Neil, do you smell that!?!...Take a Deep Breath.” Neil thought the special smell might be the Agra oil that he had gifted to the Jinn at Magic-Man’s Bunker. Joining up to Jo, Neil and Thomas sniffed the wafting scent of a magnificent fragrance, much to their delight. It was a local sweet, but strong aroma of the most beautiful perfume imaginable—similar to special ceremonial oils. The fragrance virtually came out of nowhere! Was it a metaphysical entity emitting a fragrance or someone who was watching and welcoming the Amanah?

It was apparent to Neil, Jo, and Thomas that the protective spiritual Jinn entities wanted them to notice the smell. They realized this was a significant and specific message for them, as Neil released thousands of Jinn during Neil’s first trek to the Magic-Man’s Bunker. It appears that the Jinns were not only welcoming Neil back, having waited 2 months for Neil’s return, but assuring Neil they were still watching over the Bunker. The Jinns were well aware of Neil and his Group K will be securing the GCA Bunkers soon.

The threesome of bluffers and aromatic sniffers left the Bunker’s trailhead to return to Neil’s hotel suite to stow the video camera and gear. Unbeknownst to the jungle trekkers, they were being followed by hundreds of amassing monkeys. Jo happened to hear some loud chattering noise and peered outside while alerting Neil, “Come quick! You have to see this!” After anxiously waiting for Neil to appear, Jo persistently calls out louder as the Monkeys’ chattering got noisier, “Neil! Come now!”

With Jo's insistence, Neil came to the balcony and looked down from his 6th floor room to see more than 300 monkeys everywhere! They were in the trees, on the power lines, on the hotel roof and all over the ground... THEY WERE ALL LOOKING UP AT AMANA NEIL with a chorus of gratifying chattering!

Neil smiled and said, "I wondered if the Jinns would show up." They sure did...the monkeys jumped from tree to tree...some even landed on a roof right beneath Neil's room. There must have been 300 monkeys who followed them back to the hotel... Neil, Jo and Thomas, were captivated at their agility and a crescendo chatter of goodwill.

The monkeys' chattering became so excruciating loud that Neil emphatically expressed to the monkeys to be quiet. Surprisingly, the Monkeys suddenly hushed to a state of still silence. To his amazement, Neil remarked to Jo ... "Well, I'll be a Monkey's Uncle."

Neil, being both bewildered and honored by the mass of monkeys, eloquently and humbly addressed his spiritual-monkey subjects—thanking and informing them that he would be returning and will meet them again. Elated that the Amanah acknowledged and spoke to them, the horde of monkeys as "Uncle" Keenan's new spiritual disciples scampered and scattered back into the jungle and vanished.

The masses of monkeys' jungle appearance and disappearance was another spiritual and metaphysical confirmation of Neil's 'Transfer of Power' as Amanah. The chattering gathering of gratitude by the Monkeys seemed to be an homage ceremony by the Jinn. A goodwill gesture of appreciation to Neil for releasing them from the Bunker and his return to greet them in their free, shape-shifting monkey form.

Once the metaphysical Monkey gathering had subsided, Neil and Jo prepared their write up of the scripted 'scapegoat' Bunker Bluff for another Neil Keenan Update.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | The End Of The Line

November 17, 2018

Traveling with Neil is quite an adventure! It requires a rare kind of savvy, as well as a tremendous flexibility and persistence in today's world of danger and deceit, especially in dealing with the bunkers... You have no idea how close we were to freeing the world and humanity from its chains after attempting to open the second bunker only to subvert a pillaging coup! The betrayal against the Amanah maybe considered greed, but having a "gang of disloyal hyenas" interfere with the GCA funding and deployment of humanitarian projects is reprehensible and punishable.

Little did they know that Neil had already made some calls, visited their hotel rooms while they were gone, and finally knew exactly what was up. It was so obvious to Neil when he telephoned them while they were at the base of the hill leading to the bunker, and he read them the riot act!

That one phone call was strong enough to make them all aware that we were on to them. Of course, starting out we were on alert for anything troublesome, but some things needed to transpire before their obvious and nefarious ploys were in play.

Throughout this time, Neil was often like a clam, keeping things to himself while he silently, but wisely observed and analyzed all that was going on.

The culprits may not have known this, even now, but Neil was on to them long before this trip. He clearly knew the possibility of who may be involved in such an ill-thought-out plan to steal from the Sultan and Neil (Amanah). Consequently, we are now set back a bit temporarily, but we are still moving along nevertheless.

What is most disturbing to Neil is that all those who participated in this potential theft of an entire bunker showed no respect for either the Sultan or the Amanah, which in itself will bring them misfortune or karma in their world. They are traitors to all concerned, especially to their home country of Indonesia.

Neil also feels that these "hyenas" waited years for the Sultan to turn this entire affair over. So right when it was time for the world to bloom, these mangy, dirty SOB's ran to the plate to steal what could never belong to them.

What these traitors do not realize is neither Neil or the Sultan are fools, but rather, they fully understand who is involved, and they soon will deal with them accordingly.

Neil is now bringing in a team of experts and aligning Group K with a special branch of the Indonesian Military. As a result, things will begin rolling soon in a much better organized and safer manner.

From the beginning, Neil wanted his own well-selected team involving trusted and respected financial giants from Ireland, Peru, Panama, Mexico, Texas, Minnesota,

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Michigan, Palm Springs and other places throughout the world while respecting the local people involved from Indonesia.

Currently, it will take a few more weeks of detailed planning and preparation while Neil regroups and reaches out to friends far and wide to assist him in putting together a team second to none.

As you continue sitting on the edge of your seats as the saga continues to unfold, your prayers and good wishes are most appreciated by Neil and his team in this enduring quest. And endure... we will!

Neil wishes to thank those for their wise contributions in leading to the prevention of the theft of the bunkers.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE: POISONOUS PACKETS AND IMMIGRATION

November, 2018

After the Jinn-Monkeys mass encore, Neil and crew retreated to Jakarta for a brief stay to the Grand Inna Beach Hotel to enjoy a little rest and relaxation before returning to Bulgaria and elsewhere. Unfortunately—but as an anticipated cause and effect from the execution of the plan—Neil was once again seriously poisoned just before he was to depart Indonesia and return to Bulgaria. What was unexpected was an Immigration extended thirty-day Visa issue, which detained Neil from departing as well.

Unknown to Neil, as he was traveling to and from numerous Spiritual Ritual locations on his three-month Visa, his extended thirty-day Entry Permit was suspiciously removed from his Passport—without his thirty-day Entry Permit document, Neil would be subject to overstaying thirty day fines even as the newly 'elected' Amanah.

As there were only a few days left before his thirty-day Entry Permit to extend his three-month Visa expired, Neil and Thomas spent those two days at the Airport Immigration Office in trying to sort out what to do about Neil's missing thirty-day extended Entry Permit. Without that, Neil would be fined for over-staying thirty days—As the Amanah, he should have been given an exemption or an Indonesian Diplomatic Passport.

The Immigration officials really didn't know what to do so, they fell back on the fact that Neil came in on a three-month Visa, which couldn't be extended. This Visa obstacle gave Neil no choice, but to pay the several thousands of dollars in fines to be allowed to depart Indonesia. After Thomas departed for Malaysia, Neil tried his luck with Airport Immigration again and was stonewalled. At least Immigration officials verified that Neil was the Amanah, but insisted he still needed to pay the thousands of dollars in fines.

Two challenges arose at this imperative time. Neil's first challenge was being short of cash and the second was his days of stomach rumblings gave way to full blown dysentery. Getting funds was not a problem for Neil as the money could be wired to him although, it meant waiting a few more days in a hotel with his daily immigration fine increasing even more. Neil had no choice, but to reserve a room at a nearby Airport Hotel for an extended stay to sort out his finances.

The second problem was that the earlier poisoning symptoms began to escalate beyond stomach rumblings. By the time Neil checked into his airport hotel room, his dysentery condition had become seriously acute. Neil was extremely sick as he was running a high fever too. Even though, Neil consumed a continuous volume of water mixed with electrolytes, whatever went in to his body it almost immediately came gushing out.

Until the immigration issue was resolved, Neil stayed alone in his hotel room for ten days with just the hotel staff checking-in on him to replenish liquids as his life lingered near death's door. Neil feistily attempted to self-purge from his poison-induced dysentery by tapping into the 'Transfer of Power' Scepter and Magic Power Staff.

The only pleasant solace Neil had during his life-threatening ordeal was that his patio room had a sliding glass door next to the pool—the proximity to the pool provided him with a prime view of beautiful women clad in swimming suits as they soaked up the sun and splashed in the pool—The view also contributed to re-charging Neil's life force, as well as losing 25 pounds, due to his energetic purging and poisonous detoxing.

The poisonous assassination attempt and immigration delay—due to his missing extended, thirty-day Entry Permit until it was resolved—were more Cabal challenges that Neil had to overcome. As soon as Neil's funds arrived, he paid his extended-Visa fine to Immigration authorities and re-booked his flight to return home to Bulgaria.

Neil hadn't completely recovered from his poisoning so, he had to endure his dysentery symptoms by frequenting the airline cabin bathroom during his prolonged flight back to Bulgaria. Upon his arrival at the Turkey airport for his connecting flight to Bulgaria, Neil was treated by paramedics for an interim remedy to ensure he could return home.

Once safely home, Neil's personal doctors managed his critical health needs and prescribed lots of recuperating rest, but doctors couldn't keep an Irishman down, especially with the responsibilities of the 'elected' Amanah.

When Neil was feeling better, he traveled to Dusseldorf, Germany to have Walter diagnose and treat his poisonous symptoms with his Bio-Resonance Therapy (BRT) Computer. The BRT diagnosed that Neil had 16 embedded time-released poison packets in his system. The BRT treated and counter-acted the poisonous packets to expedite Neil's healing, although he needed to continue to rest to fully recuperate from the attempted assassination ordeal.

Neil could somewhat rest during this period since most of the Cabal WB and IMF Bankers backed off of their planned Indonesia GCA Bunker heist, as well as the broke and disgruntled players of the Indonesian Bunker pirating plots were thwarted—as only he as the Amanah with his scepters could open bunker door. With the Amanah efforts to ‘clean house,’ the global Cabal stealing ploys and the Betrayer’s Bunker stealing plots subsided as the monumental year of 2018 came to an end.

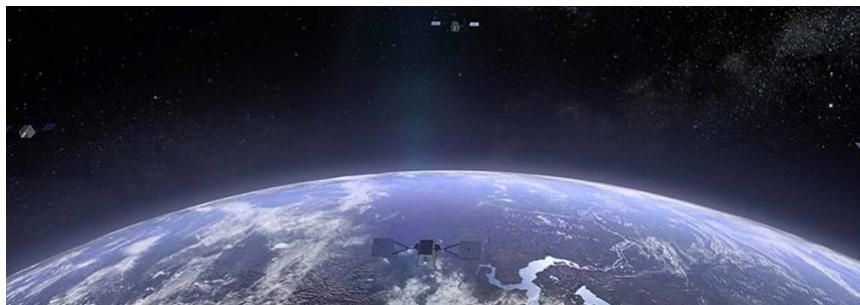

While Neil recuperated during the holidays, he intuitively knew there were still nefarious insiders and outliers lurking and devising schemes while waiting for Amanah Keenan’s return to Indonesia to secure, open and deposit the GCA Bunkers assets.

Through Neil’s multitude of intel sources, he was fully aware that his Cabal foes were still attempting to mirror accounts and conniving ways of getting their slick-willy hands on the GCA Bunker’s treasure troves. Through his decades of outing and dealing with top-tier Cartel and Cabal players, Neil has become very adept at combatting and snuffing the Cabal out even being far away from Indonesia.

Neil had fortified the GCA Bunker sites with the grateful, metaphysical Jinn, the thankful Indonesian Guardians in combination with the Golden Dragon Family’s satellite system. The advanced, impenetrable satellites provided a security force with a technically-advanced surveillance system at the secretive Bunker sites and globally—as a means to prevent and intervene with the Cabal’s futile bribing, mirroring and pillaging attempts.

The Amanah’s Group K ‘house’ still needed to have a ‘clean sweep’ as the suspected betrayers had years of camouflaging, expanding and fine tuning their Coup d’état, but Neil had his own playbook with cagey plans on how to catch them in their act.

Amanah Neil Keenan & Group K

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | The Asian Insider: Why Was Neil Keenan Elected Amanah?

December 27, 2018

For the past month or so, I have been fielding questions with respect to Neil F. Keenan and the tremendous honor he has been endowed with in being elected as the Amanah in Indonesia.

The Definition of The Amanah:

The Amanah, is the title given to the one who is and has shown his concern, care and love for not only Indonesia but for all other nations in our efforts to stay alive and relevant.

This individual is directly responsible and in charge of the deposits in all the bunkers that were placed there by the Asian Nations who brought large amounts of gifts when Sukarno was voted the first and only Amanah.

Initially, my instinct was to ignore such nonsense although it seems to have captured the minds of so many.

It has become apparent, however, that there are many sincere souls who simply have no comprehension of what has actually transpired.

Ergo, I eventually felt compelled to weigh in on certain developments, the implications of which are already grasped by millions; not only across Asia – but indeed the world over. Neil Keenan opened the likes of Pandora's Box with his "Trillion Dollar Lawsuit" when it was filed in the United States District Court in Manhattan, New York, in 2011.

The event of the filing of said lawsuit initiated the process of shining a light of truth that exposed the Globalist / Cabal networks and a multitude of financially fraudulent activities – included within which was the theft of bonds belonging to Mr. Keenan.

At that point in the proceedings Neil Keenan was a friend of Benjamin Fulford, who for his part wisely supported the lawsuit, emphasizing that it indeed possessed the capacity to bring about the end of global financial tyranny.

Until that precipitous time there were many who feared the names mentioned in Neil Keenan's bravely pioneering lawsuit; surmising that anyone associated with the filing would very likely be in line for an untimely death.

In a move that perplexed many an observer, Neil Keenan took the Cabal on directly and to this day he has never looked back.

To a large degree it was is Neil Keenan who revealed who and what "they" are.

Mr. Keenan opened a very large door and struck the floodlights, leaving the contents open for everyone else to investigate in their own discovery.

Never before has an individual showed such fearlessness. Thereafter, others following this almost incomprehensibly far-reaching, historical exposure have been Epiphytes doing their level best to attach themselves to Neil Keenan's efforts.

However, the filing of the "Trillion Dollar Lawsuit" was merely Neil Keenan's opening salvo.

Subsequently, Mr. Keenan has continued to deploy his floodlights in places – where for eons of human history – darkness had afforded safe haven to the most atrocious corruption and heinously evil activity; worldwide.

On occasion I have wondered whether Neil Keenan has more of a Native American Indian spirit than Irish; given that he now has so many scalps hitched upon his belt. In contemplating the achievements of Neil Keenan and Group K in recent years the following character and events come to mind:

OPPT, OITC, Karen Hudes, the fake Red Dragon 'Ambassador', former President Park of South Korea, Najib Razak of Malaysia, Bong Bong Marcos, Queen Beatrice of The Netherlands (founder of the Bilderberg Group), former President Sarkozy of France, former Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi of Italy, Ban Ki-moon formerly of the UN, and the thwarting of the Bush / Clinton / Obama Cartel gold thievery attempts in Asia.

Furthermore, exposing the Japanese plans to invade Indonesia in an attempted heist of their bunkered gold – as well as exposing the plot by the Clinton drug cartel to assassinate President Jokowi of Indonesia (facilitated by way of Clinton Foundation cartel drug money).

I am cognizant that there are further schemes in play behind the scenes and so it is a given there are additional revelations waiting to be revealed.

Posit: Why Neil Francis Keenan?

Why would highly qualified spiritual Muslim Elders in Indonesia unanimously elect an American Irish Catholic to be the Amanah?

The simple retort is that Mr. Keenan was vetted at the highest spiritual levels (by means that are incomprehensible to many people), and these Elders knew "he" was coming somewhere in the order of almost forty years prior. Until these events began to unfold Neil Keenan had not been much of a believer in "spirits," (especially the likes of the Jinns) and things that go bump in the night.

Certainly, it is not an understatement to say that what Neil Keenan has experienced as part of this arduous process has been eye-opening. I doubt that he would have anticipated being confronted with such powerful mystical experiences.

The Elders explained to Neil Keenan that in over half a century there had been many who felt that they were worthy of the position of the Amanah. Until Neil Keenan however, none had been capable of passing the extremely challenging spiritual initiations.

Indeed, there is far more involved in and required of being the Amanah than being a figurehead perched atop a pot of gold. In Islam, followers are instructed to “spend of the wealth entrusted to you” and to do so in a righteous and benevolent manner for the betterment of all mankind.

This is now Neil Keenan's duty. It is critical that our man remains firm in how he handles this sacred trust, as there will be many advances from those with questionable intent. Who then is better at separating the wheat from the chaff? The Elders chose well from my vantage point.

Neil Keenan has entered and takes on the mantle as the Amanah at this juncture just as the Western fiat-currency financial system is collapsing into disarray.

Cardinal Pell, the Vatican finance controller, has now been fully exposed. The Italian P2 Freemason Lodge has also been “outed” in an undertaking to cash a super bond based on that which can rightly be termed “global fraud”. Furthermore, Queen Elizabeth II is stepping down from her position as head of the Committee of 300 in favor of someone younger.

The Amanah is the principal TRUSTEE of much of the world's foundational wealth. This is the “Collateral” that constitutes the backing of both currencies and nations. This is also the collateral that has been used and abused for far too long by Western bankers and their bought-and-paid-for corporate governments.

Now we find ourselves circling back to the beginning; the “Trillion Dollar Lawsuit.”

To reiterate: Mr. Keenan is now officially the Amanah, the Sole Trustee for this underlying wealth that has been mirrored, stolen, hypothecated and abused in so many ways. At last, here comes the long-awaited light!

Hence, we are all of us; at the dawning of a Golden Age and the Amanah has access to the gold and other assets, plus the historical “Black Book of Codes” – and the most recently established new codes.

It is game over for the Globalists / Cabal.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY | PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

So, let us all work together with the Amanah in whatever capacity we may be able to – such that collectively we can make this a better world for ALL of mankind.

This is Neil Keenan's intention and objective. Please pray for him and his mission; whilst shining your own golden light.

What has been noted above constitutes only a part of why Neil Keenan was elected as the Amanah. And be certain that his people known as Group K stand beside him in this mission.

Sincerely,

The Asian Insider
